The above most extraordinary work is still in progress. Nineteen volumes of it are now offered on very advantageous terms to persons intending to complete the set. It is not too much to say that as the work of a single author carried on uninterruptedly for many years this series is unsurpassed, and can only be compared with such achievements as Littré's Dictionary or Herr von Ranke's Universal History (had its venerable author been spared to complete it).

The volumes now offered consist of the following sections:—

History of the Native Races, 5 vols., embracing Wild Tribes, Civilized Nations, Myths and Languages, Antiquities and Primitive History.

History of Central America, 1501-1860, 2 vols.

History of Mexico, 1516-1861, 5 vols.

EDITIONS OF THE HOLY BIBLE, COMMENTARIES, ETC., ETC.

PERFECT AND VERY FINE COPY OF THE ANTWERP OR PLANTIN POLYGLOTT:

BIBLIA SACRA POLYGLOTTA, Hebraïce, Chaldaïce, Græce, et Latine, Philippi II. Regis Catholici pietate et jussu, ad SS. Ecclesiæ usum edita cura et studio B. Ariæ Montani, with numerous plates, maps, etc., 8 vols. imperial folio, finely bound in old crimson morocco extra, gold-tooled, gilt edges, in beautiful condition (with the bookplate of Bishop Shute Barrington), VERY RARE, £35. Antverpiæ, Chr. Plantinus, 1569-72

The above is a COMPLETE and very fine copy, both as to condition and binding, of the celebrated Antwerp, Royal, or Plantin Polyglott, the second of the four great Polyglott Bibles whose production gives renown to Spain, France, and England. Produced by order of Philip II., under the editorship of the celebrated Arias Montanus, it contains the whole of the Complutensian Polyglott with the addition of much information of great interest and importance. It is considered the chef-d'œuvre of Plantin's press, and is excessively rare, as only 500 copies were printed, and of them the greater portion was lost by shipwreck on their voyage to Spain. As nearly all the copies left after the shipwreck were bought up for public libraries (mostly on the Continent), it is of especial rarity in England or America, and no perfect copy has occurred here for sale for many years. THE PRESENT COPY IS QUITE COMPLETE, and has the very scarce leaves of Acta Publica in the first volume, and not in the eighth, as mentioned by Brunet.

FINE REPUBLICAN COPY OF THE CELEBRATED LONDON POLYGLOTT, WITH CASTELL'S LEXICON:

BIBLIA SACRA POLYGLOTTA, complectentia Textus Originales: Hebraicum, cum Pentateucho Samaritano, Chaldaicum, Graecum: Versionumque Antiquarum: Samaritanæ, Græcæ LXXII Interpp., Chaldaïcæ, Syriacæ, Arabicæ, Æthiopicæ, Persicæ, Vulg. Lat., quicquid comparari poterat: cum Apparatu, Appendd., Tabulis, Varr. To praise the London Polyglott would be almost an impertinence: suffice it to say that while those of Complutum, Paris, and Antwerp may surpass it in interest or typographical grandeur, "in all other respects it is preferable; being more ample and more commodious" (Rev. T. H. Horne). Copies of it have not often occurred for sale of recent years. The present one has the Republican Preface, with the Editor's expression of thanks to the Protector.

The author is supposed to have been Juliana Barnes, Bernes or Berners, the prioress of Sopwell Nunnery, situated within the precincts of the Abbey of St. Alban.

The "Treatyse of Fysshynge with an Angle" (included in the above-mentioned volume) "is not only the earliest, but by far the most curious essay upon angling which has ever appeared in the English, or perhaps in any other language. In the most important features, Walton has closely followed this production. In piety and virtue—in the inculcation of morality—in an ardent love for their art, and still more, in that placid and Christian spirit for which the amiable Walton was so conspicuous, the early writer was scarcely inferior to his or her more celebrated successor."—Lowndes.

THE NEW "OXFORD EDITION."

BOSWELL (James) Life of Samuel Johnson, including Dr. Johnson's Diary of a Journey into North Wales; edited, with Notes etc., by G. Birkbeck Hill, d.c.l., with several fine portraits and other illustrations, 6 vols. 8vo. half bound in roxburghe style, top edges gilt, £2. 12*s* 6*d* Clarendon Press, Oxford, 1887

This handsome edition, for which the author of "Dr. Johnson, his Friends and his Critics" has been collecting material for many years, embodies the result of the most recent research on the subject. The editor has been able, by means of many unpublished letters of Dr. Johnson, to clear up some obscure points in his history, and has likewise taken every opportunity of testing Boswell's statements and those of former editors. The index is intended to be absolutely exhaustive, and will, it is hoped, serve as a key to that vast mass of literature and anecdote which has accumulated round the name of Johnson.

Imprynted at Geneve in Sauoye by Myghell boys (n. d.)

This is a remarkably desirable copy of a highly curious and instructive little book on the state of England at the period of the Reformation, too celebrated to require any description. A worm has pierced slightly the front blank margin, but not so as to injure or distigure the volume. (See Hazlitt's Collections and Notes, 1876, p, 52.) This edition was really executed at London about 1548 by Anthony Scoloker and William Seres.

which they possess the greatest facilities for executing in the choicest styles, worthy of so fine a work, and for which they therefore invite early communications from subscribers to enable them to have their copies attended to without delay on the completion of the work.

We have Kings, Queens, and the Members of their Courts, the Nobility, Professional Men, Belles, and Beaux, Domestics, Town and Country People, Courtesans, Ladies in full dress and en déshabillé, the strict dress of High Society, and the grotesque habiliments of the period of the Revolution and the Directory, followed by more recent vicissitudes of fashion.

ILLUSTRATIONS OF ENGLISH AND FOREIGN COSTUME, from the Fifteenth Century to the present day, 96 full-length portraits engraved by PAUQUET BROTHERS, after the designs of Albert Dürer, Titian, Vecellio, Jost Amman, Holbein, Rubens, Vandyck, Hollar, Bourdon, St. Sauveur, Koning, Lecluse, Dupré, and the principal Artists of the present age, all delicately and accurately hand-coloured, royal 4to. handsomely half bound in morocco, gilt edges, £2. 15*s* 1875

"Dr. Latham's work is not only an English Dictionary in the strict meaning of the term, but in many important respects a very valuable addition to our national Lexicography. It deserves to be studied by every one interested in the language, and as a book of reference is admirably fitted for general usefulness."—Edinburgh Review.

"This truly great Philological Work is now brought to a conclusion. To the Vocabulary of the original work, which has always been considered defective, Dr. Latham has made so many Additions that his work may fairly be pronounced the most comprehensive and complete that has hitherto been attempted. He has very properly admitted Provincial Words having an undisputed ancient origin; those words of foreign origin which have been incorporated bodily into the English language; purely colloquial phrases, and modern scientific terms, and compounds of recent date. Another important improvement upon the original has been made in the Etymology, all conjectural derivations having been rejected."

THE GREAT WORK, NOW IN ACTIVE PROGRESS:

Now Ready, Part III. Batter—Boz (pp. 705-1040).

Price 10s 6d nett.

A NEW ENGLISH DICTIONARY on Historical Principles, founded mainly on the Materials collected by the Philological Society. Edited by James A. H. Murray, ll.d., President of the Philological Society; with the Assistance of many Scholars and Men of Science.

This grand work has been in preparation for more than a quarter of a century. Its design is to furnish a complete account of the Meaning, Etymology, and History of English Words now in use, or known to have been in use at any time in the course of the last 700 years. The various Meanings are arranged in a logical order; the Obsolete Senses and Constructions are distinguished, and each sense is illustrated by Quotations, from the earliest known use down to the present day.

The Vocabulary will contain all words English in form which have been in use since the 13th century, and all Foreign words that have been, or now are, more or less in use, including all Scientific Terms of general interest; and will be much more extensive than that of any other English Dictionary.

Quotations.—The work of collecting these has occupied about 1300 readers, and they number 3½ millions, collected from above 5000 authors, including all those of the early periods that have been printed, and many which exist only in manuscript.

As to the Printing: in order to facilitate reference, great pains have been taken to make the Dictionary eloquent to the eye, by the employment of different sizes and styles of type, by the arrangement of the articles, and by the prominence given to the Dates of the Quotations.

MESSRS. H. SOTHERAN AND CO. will be happy to receive Subscribers' Names for this great work (which it is confidently expected will be completed in a reasonable time) at the above nett price per part.

IN MONTHLY VOLUMES:

In Quarto, cloth extra, Price £1. 5s each; or bound in half morocco, marbled edges (publisher's binding), £1. 10s.

NOTE.

It having been represented that a re-issue of the Encyclopædia Britannica at this time would be a great convenience to those who have hitherto been unable to purchase a large number of volumes at one time, and who would in the way now proposed have less difficulty in acquiring the work, the Publishers have decided to adopt the course suggested.

In re-issuing the Encyclopædia, the Public are informed that it will be simply as a Re-issue and not as a New Edition that the work will be published. No change whatever will be made in the contents of the work, and the title-pages with their respective dates will remain unaltered. In other particulars, however, everything will be done to make the New Issue attractive and useful to the reader.

In offering the Encyclopædia at this time in a more convenient form of publication than was formerly available, the Publishers have reason to believe the opportunity will not be lost sight of by those who may formerly have been deterred from subscribing to the work on the ground of economy.

It is proposed to begin the issue on 1st December next, continuing the publication in monthly volumes until complete. Intending subscribers are invited to apply as early before that date as convenient to

DRAMATISTS of the RESTORATION, a complete set, edited, with Prefatory Memoirs and Notes, by James Maidment and W. H. Logan, 14 vols. post 8vo. cloth, £3. 3*s* (pub. £7. 7*s*) 1872-9

No Dramatic Collection can be considered complete without the above Authors, who, for the most part writers of Comedy, flourished after the extinction of the Commonwealth. As the Text, in previous editions, had been either imperfectly or corruptly dealt with, the several Plays are now presented in an unmutilated form. They are beautifully printed on fine paper, and range with the best editions of Ben Jonson, Shirley, and other early Dramatists.

DRUMMOND (Right Hon. Sir W.) Works, including: Origines, map, 4 vols. 1824—The Oedipus Judaicus, 1811—Review of the Governments of Sparta and Athens, 1794—The Rev. G. The "British Critic" attributed to Sir William "the most patient industry of antiquarian research, great learning, and skill." It has elsewhere been remarked of the Origines (see next article) "that it is a work of great erudition and research, important to the student of Eastern History."

——— Origines; or Remarks on the Origin of several Empires, States, and Cities, map and tables, vols. 1 and 2, 8vo. (with 7 pages of caustic MS. The remaining volumes will be supplied on the same terms, but orders can only be taken for complete sets.

This Edition of Dryden's Works is not an exact reprint of Sir Walter Scott's, nor is it a reprint of that edition with additions merely. On the other hand, the present Editor has included the whole of Sir Walter's editorial matter, and has not interfered with the order of his arrangement.

[DU] BARTAS [(G. Saluste, Sieur)]: his Devine Weekes & Workes Translated; & Dedicated to the King's most excellent Maiestie by Iosvah Sylvester, engraved title (slightly damaged), 2 parts in 1 vol. 4to. fine clean copy of the first collected edition, old calf, with the book-plate and MS. notes of Dr. Bliss, £4. 4*s* Humfrey Lownes, 1605-7

Dr. Bliss remarks on the fly-leaf: "This copy of Sylvester has been carefully collated with Mr. Malone's copy in the Bodleian, with which (so far as Mr. M.'s copy goes) it agrees in every particular. Mr. Malone's copy, however, wants the whole of the supplemental volume, printed in 1606-7, which will be found here at page 496 and again after p. 516. I believe this to be the first collected edition of Sylvester's translation. Many of his own additions to the author's text are here given for the first time." Dr. Bliss has also transcribed Malone's MS. notes on another leaf. Altogether the present is perhaps the most complete and desirable copy of the work of the "Silver-tongued" Sylvester which has been offered for sale.

A RARE VOLUME:

ELIZABETH (Queen):—A Letter: whearin, part of the entertainment vntoo the Queenz Maiesty, at Killingwoorth Castle, in Warwik Sheer in this Soomerz Progress 1575, iz signified: from a freend officer attendant in the Court [Robert Laneham] unto hiz freend a Citizen and Merchaunt of London, black letter, 16mo. interleaved with thick white paper (the title mounted), and bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £8. 10*s* (1575)

A very rare and interesting volume. The whole of the details of the Virgin Queen's celebrated visit to Kenilworth are given with minuteness. Gifford's assertion that the book is "written in a most uncouth style by a pedantic coxcomb, under an affectation of humour" appears rather ill-natured and exaggerated when account is taken of the faithful narrative the author has rendered and other very entertaining (and historically important) results which he attains. Tite's copy (cut down, and with a piece cut from title, etc.) was sold for £18. 18*s*. Only a few copies are known to exist, and a note in the above copy by Mr. W. Hamper characterises it as "almost unique."

CORBET ANDERSON, 4 vols. imperial 4to. cloth gilt, £3. 3*s* (pub. £6. 6*s*) 1869-72

In 4 handsome Portfolios, IMPERIAL FOLIO SIZE, half morocco, £21.

ANOTHER SIMILAR COPY, each plate carefully mounted on linen guards, with the TEXT in a SEPARATE VOLUME, forming 5 vols. half morocco extra, gilt edges, £30.

A SUMPTUOUS COPY OF THE SAME, superbly bound in crimson morocco, the sides and backs richly tooled, gilt edges, £42. 10s.

THE COLOURED COPIES, although now issued at one half the price of the former publication, will be found on inspection to be in no way inferior, every care having been taken to ensure faithful copies of the ORIGINAL SKETCHES, which were drawn and coloured on the spot, with all but the finish of a picture.

THE FIGURES which enliven each scene, are all, both as regards their COSTUMES and OCCUPATIONS, taken from the most trustworthy authorities; and are introduced not merely as pictorial adjuncts, but from a desire to identify the Edifices they illustrate with the Characters and Habits of a people that have now passed away, and to represent, in some of its peculiarities, "the very Age and Body of the Time."

No Pictorico-Architectural work was ever so immediately successful on its publication as "Nash's Mansions;" and this resulted not only from the interesting specimens of the grand Domestic Architecture of England which were selected, but from their having been executed by a first-rate Draughtsman distinguished by very superior taste. The original edition (for copies of which see post) having long become scarce and dear, the present edition has been published, without any sacrifice of the beautiful effects of the former one.

BATENHAM and JOHN MUSGROVE, 1814-17, with Preface and Descriptions, folio, £1. 1*s* (pub. £2. 12*s* 6*d*) Manchester, 1880

——— The same, with INDIA PROOF IMPRESSIONS of the beautiful etchings, in portfolio, or neatly hf. bd. in mor., top edges gilt, £2. 2*s* (pub. £4. 4*s*)

Of these beautiful etchings, depicting some of the quaintest street views in old Chester, only 200 copies have been taken on plain paper, and 100 on India paper; the copperplates have been destroyed, and no more copies can ever be produced. In many cases these etchings give the only record of many interesting old buildings which have since been destroyed.

CORNWALL:—CAREW (Richard) The SURVEY of CORNWALL, and Epistle concerning the Excellencies of the English Tongue, with Life by H[ugh] C[arew], third edition, with List of Subscribers, 6 pp., 4to. Spanish calf gilt, yellow ed., SCARCE, 18*s* 6*d* 1769

This is considered the most accurate and satisfactory, 'beyond all comparison,' says Lowndes, of the Histories of Cornwall. The author in his address to the Reader in remarking the numerous changes in the country says "this treatise plotteth down Cornwall as it now standeth" (1602). The dedication to Sir Walter Raleigh signed "Your Lordships poor Kinsman" is curious and interesting.

CORNWALL:—BORLASE (Rev. W.) The ANTIQUITIES of CORNWALL, Historical and Monumental, with VOCABULARY of the Cornu-British Language; second edition enlarged, map and numerous plates, 1769; also NATURAL HISTORY of CORNWALL, by the same, map and numerous plates, Oxford, 1758—together 2 vols. folio, old russia, bright gilt backs, gilt edges, IN FINE CONDITION, £6. 15*s* 1758-69

The "Antiquities" contains Essays on the Druids, Superstitions, Customs, and Remains of the most remote Antiquity, and was largely consulted by the late H. T. BUCKLE, in writing his "History of Civilization." The other vol. is a very complete Natural History of the County: its Climate, Rivers, Metals, Birds, Fishes, Inhabitants, etc.

——— POLWHELE (Rev. R.) HISTORY of CORNWALL, 3 vols., Falmouth, 1803—History in respect to Population, and the Health, Longevity, Diseases, etc. of the Inhabitants, portrait, Truro, 1806: Civil and Military History, Exeter, 1806: Language, Literature, and Literary Character, London, 1806: Cornish-English Vocabulary, Truro, 1808—together 7 vols. 4to. in 5, with map, views, ports., pedigrees, etc.; old tree-cf. gt., £7. 10*s* 1803-8

The above is a sound and clean copy of the original edition with good impressions of the plates: it does not contain the Vocabulary of Local Names after p. 65 in the Glossary, which is usually lacking. As hardly any two copies exactly agree, the above is not guaranteed perfect, and is therefore marked at an unusually low price.

——— BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES in, by the same, with his and other portraits and plates, 3 vols. post 8vo. boards (scarce, from the Hartley Collection), £1. 1*s* Truro, 1831

——— MACLEAN (Sir J.) Parochial and Family History of the DEANERY of TRIGG MINOR, coloured plates, etc., including illustrations of all the churches, with their ground-plans, 3 vols. 4to. in 14 parts, sewn, £3. 10*s* (pub. £7. 13*s*) Bodmin, 1868-72

——— Statistical Account of the Parish of St. Just, in Penwith; and of its Ecclesiastical and Druidical Antiquities; by the REV. J. BULLER, plates and map, 8vo. cloth (presentation copy to Sir Harris Nicolas), 9*s* Penzance, 1842

This interesting and valuable collection, in addition to Exterior and Interior Views of the Cathedral, Tombs, etc., contains 40 drawings devoted to the Legends of Saint Anthony and Saint Austin, copied from the original paintings in the North and South Choir Aisles.

DORSETSHIRE, HISTORY and ANTIQUITIES of, by the REV. J. HUTCHINS, compiled from the best and most Ancient Historians, Records, MSS., Domesday Book, etc., with numerous fine engravings, maps, genealogical tables, etc., 2 vols. folio, neatly half bound, wholly uncut, £4. 4s Nichols, 1774

——— The same, THIRD EDITION, much augmented by SHIPP and HODSON, and embellished with numerous Engravings, Views of Seats, Antiquities, etc., complete in 15 parts, royal folio, sewn, £10. 1861-75

——— Another copy, new crimson morocco extra, gilt edges, £20.

——— The same, LARGE PAPER, 4 vols. imperial folio, new crimson morocco extra, gilt edges (SCARCE), £31. 10s

This third edition of the History and Antiquities of the important county of Dorset is much augmented by assistance rendered to the editors by many gentlemen (some of whose names are mentioned in the Preface), either residing in or connected with the County. Its value is further enhanced by many fine engravings by LE KEUX, who was specially retained for the production of Views of Gentlemen's Seats, in addition to some of the old plates which still retain a peculiar interest.

CUMBERLAND:—JEFFERSON (S.) History and Antiquities of LEATH WARD, Cumberland, with Biographical Notices and Memoirs, with fine plates of Churches, Antiquities, etc., INDIA PROOFS, impl. 8vo. LARGE PAPER, cloth, £1. 10s Carlisle, 1840

Only 300 copies were printed as above, and 12 on large paper.

——— and STAFFORDSHIRE:—The Natural History of TUTBURY, and the Fauna and Flora of the District surrounding, by SIR OSWALD MOSLEY (with his auto. inscription) and E. BROWN, 9 illustrations, impl. 8vo. cloth, £1. 5s Van Voorst, 1863

DEVONSHIRE, HISTORY of, by the REV. RICHARD POLWHELE, with map and 23 (out of 24) engraved plates, 3 vols. royal folio, old mottled calf (SCARCE), £15. 10s Exeter, 1797-93-1806

The above copy is marked at a VERY LOW PRICE as it wants in vol. 1 the original map (one being substituted), 8 pp. of contents, 4 pp. of postscript etc., and in vol. 2 the half-title, and the plate of Bridwell, the seat of R. Hall. It is, however, the case that it is very difficult to say when a copy is perfect or not, as hardly any two copies are to be found agreeing with each other in all particulars.

FIRST VOLUME (COMPLETE IN ITSELF) OF THE NEW EDITION OF

HASTED'S HISTORY OF KENT, corrected, enlarged, and continued to the present time from the MS. Collections of the late Revv. Thomas Streatfield and Lambert Blackwell Larking, the Public Records, and other sources, edited by HENRY H. DRAKE, M.R.A.I.: Part I, the HUNDRED OF BLACKHEATH, comprising the Kentish Suburbs of London, with 30 pages of illustrations, folio, cloth, top edges gilt, £5. 1886

The present volume is the first-fruits of an enterprise first undertaken as far back as 1836, when the late Rev. T. Streatfield, of Charts Edge, issued a circular announcing his attention of publishing a History of Kent, to the accumulation of materials for which he, for nearly half a century, devoted his life's energies. He secured the coöperation in his task of his friend the late Rev. Lambert B. Larking, Vicar of Ryarsh, himself a well-known collector of information connected with the County. The result of the untiring energy of the two friends in their joint investigations was the acquisition of a vast amount of information, which their deaths however (in 1848 and 1868 respectively) prevented their submitting to the public Their collections fell into the hands of Mr. J. W. Larking, who determined to perpetuate his brother's and friend's memories by utilizing them, and having found a competent Editor in Dr. Drake, the present work is now as a result published, as one complete in itself, but designed, if it meets with success, to form a part of the History of the whole County. Copies will be supplied at the Subscription Price of £5. by H. Sotheran and Co.

In tracing the descent of the Castle, the historian conducts the reader through several interesting family circles, including that of Crevecœur, Leyburn, Badlesmere, Bourchier, and others, and renders the work of considerable value by the insertion of a number of Pedigrees. The building itself, standing almost unaltered within its ancient moat, is of almost greater interest to the ARCHITECT than to the ANTIQUARY.

A REMARKABLE ILLUSTRATED COPY:

LYSONS (Rev. D.) The ENVIRONS of LONDON: an Historical Account of the Towns, Villages, and Hamlets within Twelve Miles of that Capital, interspersed with Biographical Anecdotes, THE COMPLETE WORK, including the Middlesex Parishes and the Supplement, with numerous fine portraits, engravings, etc., SIX VOLUMES EXTENDED INTO FOURTEEN by the insertion of nearly TWO THOUSAND ADDITIONAL ILLUSTRATIONS, comprising maps, plans, ORIGINAL DRAWINGS, and engravings (many VERY FINE and RARE) of Views, Arms, Monuments, Antiquities, Buildings, Portraits of Eminent Personages, and Remarkable People, etc., 14 thick and magnificent vols. royal 4to. LARGE PAPER, half morocco, uncut (in very fine condition), £145. 1792-1811

No description brief enough for a bookseller's catalogue can give anything like an adequate conception of the contents of these volumes. The great variety of Engravings and Drawings, representing almost every object of interest in, and person of note connected with, the locality, as well as the wonderful brilliancy of impression of a large number of the portraits, must be seen to be appreciated. Some of the engravings are in two states, and in many cases there are several different views of the same place. Here and there is inserted a local Tract, or a MS. copy of a monumental inscription. Altogether, it must have cost many years of patient effort to collect and arrange with so much judgment and taste so large an assemblage of materials for the illustration of this valuable work.

CHOICE COPIES OF BOTH EDITIONS:

WARWICKSHIRE, Antiquities of, by SIR WILLIAM DUGDALE, with Maps, Prospects, and Portraictures, FIRST EDITION, folio, fine copy in sound old russia extra, with the Wodhull Arms in gold on sides, £13. 13*s* 1656

Although the edition by Thomas in 1730 is desirable as containing additional matter, this is far more correct, and has the best impressions of the portraits and plates. From the dedication "To my Honoured Friends the Gentry of Warwickshire," the author indicates a familiarity with that Shire, which makes us regret that he did not leave us further particulars of Shakespeare. Even the engraving of the monument at Stratford is not very satisfactory. But it is the earliest view of it, and is so far of value and interest.

——— The same, SECOND AND ENLARGED EDITION, revised, augmented, and continued (to 1730) by the Rev. W. Thomas, with Alphabetical Index and Blazonry of Arms, illustrated with portrait, maps, and numerous very fine and large copperplate engravings by Hollar, etc., 2 vols. folio, beautifully bound in red morocco super-extra, gold borders, backs, and gilt edges, in fine condition (a very choice copy), £42. 1730

Both the above are desirable copies of this celebrated work, Sir William Dugdale's chef d'œuvre, which according to Mr. Gough "must stand at the head of all our County Histories."—"Its scrupulous accuracy united with stubborn integrity has elevated Dugdale's Warwickshire to the rank of legal evidence."

——— Another copy, slightly foxed, 16*s*

The Coats of Arms are emblazoned, and the margins enriched by various additional Escutcheons, Book-plates, and MS. Notes. The vol. also contains much valuable matter written by Mr. W. D. In the above copy of Modern Wilts the Hundreds of South Damerham, Downton and Cawden have been carefully mounted to size from a small paper copy, and half a dozen plates are foxed. These drawbacks however are but slight, and the present as a whole is an exceptionally desirable copy of this magnificent work, which gives the continuous history of a most interesting district of England and of its inhabitants, British, Roman, and English, during the last two thousand years.

There is also a copious Index. From there only having been ONE HUNDRED COPIES PRINTED, most of which remain in public institutions, the present is probably almost the only copy that has ever occurred for sale.

This work is one of the most important additions to the literary Archæology of Wales which has been produced during this century, and one which, alike in its Editor and Printer, true local patriotism may look upon with just pride.

"We must not forget the services rendered to her country by Lady Charlotte Guest, whose Mabinogion is an inestimable treasure. There are the favourite topics of the most celebrated Troubadours of Mediæval Europe to be found in all their primitive beauty and simplicity; and without any disparagement to Sir T. Malory or Mr. Tennyson, few can have any notion of the primitive beauty of these old Tales till they read them in the 'Mabinogion.'"—Athenæum.

D'Urfey's Tory Songs did much to strengthen the Royal cause, and his Protestant lays helped to bring Popery into disrepute. "I myself remember (says Addison in the 'Guardian') King Charles leaning on Tom D'Urfey's shoulder more than once, and humming a song over with him. It is certain that monarch was not a little supported by 'Joy to Great Cæsar,' which gave the Whigs such a blow as they were not able to recover that whole reign. My friend afterwards attacked Popery with the same success, having exposed Bellarmine and Porto-Carrero more than once, in short satirical compositions which have been in everybody's mouth."

All who had the advantage of his acquaintance will be glad to have a memorial of one who endeared himself to many by the amiability of his disposition and the sincerity of his character.

The present edition in short may be considered, as far as the material is concerned, the final edition of Benjamin Franklin's Works. The whole edition is limited to six hundred copies.

A SERIES OF RARE FUGITIVE PIECES relating to CROMWELL, LONDON, DEVONSHIRE, etc., all in fine state, as follows:—

Harvey (John, Gentleman)—Londons Lawless Liberty; or A Goznionian partie licensed. Being a true discoverie of a pack of prodigious Knaves, 4to. sewn, EXTREMELY RARE, £1. 1*s* 1647

The name of this writer is as unknown to bibliographers as his tract. The latter affords a most singular picture of reai or alleged abuses in the City of London, as well as an insight into the character of commercial life at the period and the names of localities.

The Poets Knavery Discovered, in all their lying Pamphlets, written by J. B., 4to. sewn, £1. 1*s* [1642]

A most singular exposure of the fictitious nature of most of the popular literature of the day, purporting to show that the pamphlets issued under attractive titles or in the names of celebrated persons were fabricated by hackney writers. The account is at the same time important and amusing.

Iter Australe Attempting something upon the happy Return of Charles II. from Banishment to his Throne, By a Loyal Pen, IN VERSE, 4to. excessively rare, sewn, 15*s* 1660

No copy of this piece seems to have occurred for public sale.

A Tragi-Comedy, called New-Market-Fayre, 4to. sewn, 10*s* Printed as you may goe look, 1649

A dramatic dialogue.

An Agitator Anatomiz'd; or, The Character of an Agitator, 4to. sewn, 10*s* 1648

There are some very interesting allusions here to Lincolnshire men, Bartholomew Fair, Cromwell, etc. The writer mentions an "alamode slip shooe, like an old pot-lid quarter-burnt," and speaks of a man whose English is worse than Chaucer's, or the first Scottish Papers.

Four Fugitives Meeting, or The Discourse amongst my Lord Finch, Sir Francis Windebank, Sir John Sucklin, and Doctor Roane, as they accidentally met in France, with a detection of their several pranks in England, 4to. woodcut on title, sewn, 10*s* 1641

A most interesting pamphlet with allusions to the Northamptonshire churchwardens, who had scruples as to taking the oath, Suckling's Cap-and-Feather men, an episode connected with his play of Aglaura, etc. Windebank says to Suckling:—

"I thinke, Sir John, your coat of Male would scarce have kept out the Pedlar's bullets, as it did the Rapier, in Black-Fryars, when you came from Aglauro [sic]."

[Oldisworth, Michael] The First-Fruits of Philip Earle of Pembroke and Montgomery, etc. [sometimes] Knight of the Garter: And [Now] Knight of Berk-Shire, 4to. sewn, £1. 1*s* [1648]

This is a speech supposed to have been delivered by the Earl to the Lower House, and is most humourously written, all the characteristic traits of the pretended orator being brought out in strong relief. It is quite unique in its way.

Cromwell (Oliver), A Coppie of a Letter to be sent to Lieutenant Generall Crumwel from the well-affected Partie in the City, 1647; A Word to Lieut. Gen. Cromwel: and two words for the selling of the King, Parliament and Kingdom, 1647; A Case for Nol Cromwells Nose, and the Cure of Tom Fairfax's Gout, in prose and verse, 1648; together, three most rare and curious historical tracts, £1. 1*s* 1647-8

The last piece is particularly rare.

——— The same, First Proofs on India Paper, atlas folio size, in portfolio, £5. 5*s* (pub. £10.10*s*)

⁂ Copies in various sumptuous bindings, forming handsome presents, kept in stock.

By this process the engravings are hardly to be detected from the drawings themselves. No description would realize the variety of subjects, and the wide range of Mr. Crane's pencil, nor the felicity with which each of the characters, human and semi-human, is drawn and individualized. Men, women, boys, girls, fairies, demons, elves, imps, beasts, birds, and even insects, all figure before us—singing, dancing, flying, joyous or sad, in each scene of the masque. All is May and Fairyland.

Opinions of the Press.

"'The First of May' is a grand art-work, and bids fair to be the book not only of this but many another season. It is unique in character, unsurpassed and unsurpassable in beauty, and one of the most exquisite and choice that an artist-mind could conceive, or enlightened and liberal-minded publishers carry out. It will be a treasure—'a thing of beauty' that will be 'a joy for ever'—to those who are fortunate enough to secure copies. These should be at once applied for."—The Reliquary.

"'The First of May' is a work full of tender feeling, and perfect in composition. The artist's smaller figures, his children, are delightful. What could be prettier than the little group around the maypole, No. III., or the busy elves making 'the spring's green wave break o'er the fields'? And how successful, too, he is in his delineation of the half-animal, half-human creature, which, though somewhat sparingly, he has introduced; two groups on Sheet XXXVIII. are not unworthy of Wilhelm Von Kaulbach or of Grandville."—Academy.

A REMARKABLY CHOICE SET:

HOGARTH'S WORKS: 90 singularly fine Engravings, by Hogarth, including the two suppressed plates and the plates in their FIRST, SECOND, and THIRD States, with numerous Variations, also the Alterations made by Hogarth; the whole neatly fastened (by two corners only) on stout paper, forming an atlas folio volume, calf extra, gilt edges, £38. 10*s* 1733-64

To point out all the features of this set of Hogarth would require an Essay occupying too much space in this catalogue, but it may suffice to mention that it contains the crux of Hogarthian collections, the March to Finchley, with the dedication to the King of Prussia, spelt Prusia; the Harlot's Progress, with a variation in Plate I.; the Rake's Progress, with several curious variations, etc.

"The scarceness of the good impressions of Hogarth's larger works is in a great measure owing to their having been pasted on canvas or boards, to be framed and glazed for furniture. There were few people who collected his prints for any other purpose at their first appearance. The majority of these sets being hung up in London houses have been utterly spoiled by smoke. Since foreigners have learned the value of the same performances, they have also been exported in considerable numbers. Wherever a taste for the fine arts has prevailed, the works of this great master are to be found. I am credibly informed the Empress of Russia has expressed uncommon pleasure in examining such genuine representations of English manners: I have seen a set of cups and saucers, with the Harlot's Progress painted on them in China, about the year 1739."—John Nichols.

This copy has been bound from a set which has not been framed, which accounts for their fine state and freshness. Nearly all have the prices engraved upon them, and, with one or two exceptions, are all dated, and have Hogarth's name engraved in the usual place.

"His drawings (says Bryan) are the objects of the admiration of the most intelligent. His figures are elegant and graceful, and their action bold and spirited. He possessed a fertile invention, and a commanding facility of execution. Carlo Maratti told him, if you could paint as well as you draw, I should have abandoned the art."

"These ten autogravures which the Autotype Company have just published in facsimile of some of Charles Méryon's celebrated etchings, accompanied as they are with descriptive explanations by Mr. Stopford Brooke, form a most interesting collection, and for the first time bring specimens of Méryon's work before the public at a comparatively low price . . . . . The Autotype Company and Mr. Stopford Brooke are to be thanked for their endeavour to place some of these works within the range of the public; and many a young artist, we think, who is receiving but little encouragement from those around him, may gather a fine lesson in endurance and honesty of purpose from the delicate strength and long endurance with which these plates were wrought, by a man who lacked the very means of subsistence, but who would not therefore lower his art to bring it within the range of public favour, and who is at last justified by time."—Spectator, March 19th, 1887.

"What developed Méryon was his passionate wish to preserve some adequate memorial of that picturesque old city of Paris which has disappeared before the constructive activity of Haussmann and Louis Napoleon. If old Paris had been likely to remain a generation or two longer, it is possible that we might scarcely have heard of Méryon, because half the quality of his work is due to the intensity of his affection for remains whose destruction he foresaw with the most bitter regret, as a near and irremediable misfortune which he had no power to avert. But if an artist cannot save an old building which he loves, he may at least secure a memorial of it, a memorial better than the fidelity of the photograph, because it expresses not only the beauty of the thing itself, but the pathetic affection of the one human soul that cares for it."—MR. HAMERTON, in "Etching and Etchers."

ULREADY'S RARE POSTAL ENVELOPE: One of the Original Pictorial Penny-Post Envelopes designed by this great artist for public transmission, but withdrawn shortly after its introduction. (UNUSED.) Excessively Rare. 12*s* 6*d*

——— ANOTHER OF THESE ORIGINAL ENVELOPES for the sum of Two Pence. [This Twopenny Envelope is even more rare than the Penny one.] Price £1. 5*s*

The rarity of the above elaborate Official Envelope is well known. On the introduction of Postage tamps, the officials feared their wholesale forgery; and with reference to this dread, The Daily News, eptember 8, 1881, thus speaks: "Possibly this unreasonable dread may have been at the bottom of the amed MULREADY envelopes, the beautiful but much too elaborate design of which afforded to the wits f 1840 such abundant opportunities for satire. They have now become very scarce; for the lampoons and aricatures daunted the authorities, and the highly artistic but wholly inappropriate vehicle for business ommunications was withdrawn. The scarcity is sufficiently explained by the fact that all the ast stock prepared for issue was destroyed at the time. A Machine was constructed xpressly for the work of destruction, as related in Sir Rowland Hill's Memoirs."

These Envelopes have been known to fetch very high prices; and very recently one was sold by uction in Paris for the large sum of £20.

☞ The specimens now offered above are known to be genuine by the slender strips of silk which are ntroduced into their manufacture.

This splendid work is executed in the finest style of the lithographic art. The Gallery, as is well nown, contains a most magnificent collection of the paintings of the Old Masters.

This copy has both the original title and half-title to Vol. I., where the collection is described as the usée Napoléon, and the altered title, where it is called the Musée Royal, and dated the year after aterloo. A DESIRABLE AND CHEAP COPY, IN BEAUTIFULLY FRESH STATE.

"In taste, in grace, in facility, in happy invention, and in the richness and harmony of colouring, ir Joshua Reynolds was equal to the greatest masters of the renowned ages. In Portraits he went eyond them; for he communicated to them that description of the art in which English artists are most ngaged, a fancy and a dignity, derived from the higher branches, which even those who professed them a superior manner did not always preserve when they delineated individual nature. His Portraits emind us of the invention and the amenity of landscape."—Burke.

A COLLECTION OF CHARMING ETCHINGS:

UNGER (W.) WORKS:—SEVENTY-TWO MOST BEAUTIFUL ETCHINGS after the Old Masters, Tintoretto, Ruysdael, Rembrandt, Guido, Poussin, Rubens, Ostade, Jan Steen, Van Dyck, Wouvermans, Paul Potter, Frans Hals, Paul Veronese, Jordaens, Van der Velde, Brouwer, etc., with Critical and Descriptive Notes by C. Vosmaer, A LARGE AND SUPERB VOLUME, imperial folio, half morocco, uncut, top edges gilt, £8. 8*s* (pub. £12. 12*s*) 1878

"No engraver who ever lived has so completely identified himself with painters he had to interpret as Professor Unger in the seventy-two plates which compose his works. . . Mr. Vosmaer has much increased the interest in Unger's etchings by accompanying them with valuable descriptive and critical notes. . . . We recommend them strongly to all artists and lovers of art."

P. G. Hamerton, in the International Review.

A REMARKABLY CHOICE COPY.

TURNER (J. M. W., R.A.) PICTURESQUE VIEWS IN ENGLAND AND WALES, 96 large and beautiful engravings by the best artists, very fine original impressions, ARTIST'S PROOFS ON INDIA PAPER, with Descriptive and Historic Accounts of each View by H. E. LLOYD; 2 vols. atlas folio, LARGEST PAPER, hf. mor. extra, top edges gilt, £105. 1838

A very choice copy as to impressions; but as the whole of the Descriptive Text is inlaid to the size of the plates, it is offered at a proportionate reduction from its intrinsic value.

A FINE AND VERY CHEAP COPY.

——— The same, 72 (of 96) large and beautiful engravings, PROOFS BEFORE LETTERS (many being ARTIST'S PROOFS BEFORE ALL LETTERS), with a series of 71 ETCHINGS or UNFINISHED PROOFS, the whole on INDIA PAPER, and the former being MOST BEAUTIFUL AND BRILLIANT IMPRESSIONS, 2 vols. colombier folio, LARGEST PAPER, one volume handsomely bound in full blue morocco super-extra, finely tooled on sides and inside covers, gilt edges, the other (containing only 12 of the plates) in half red morocco extra (A DESIRABLE AND REMARKABLY CHEAP SERIES), £63. 1832

It is to be regretted that the above is not actually complete, but it may safely be said that the set could not be matched by any one collection. The value of a perfect set in the above state—that is to say of the proofs alone, without the unfinished plates—would be about one hundred guineas, so that this is undoubtedly a moderately priced copy.

The "England and Wales" of Turner has always been considered his greatest work. His varied excellencies can only be properly appreciated when seen in fine impressions of the engravings, like the above. Mr. RUSKIN says, more particularly with reference to the above work, "J. M. W. TURNER is the only man who has ever given an entire transcript of the whole system of nature, and is, in this point of view, the ONLY PERFECT LANDSCAPE PAINTER whom the world has ever seen." To which we may add, that the "England and Wales" has always been considered his greatest work, while his varied excellencies can only be properly appreciated when seen in fine impressions of the engravings, like the above.

A FINE COPY: PROOFS ON INDIA PAPER.

——— PICTURESQUE VIEWS on the SOUTHERN COAST of England, with descriptions, 80 exceedingly beautiful plates engraved by W. B. COOKE, G. NOW COMPLETE.

TURNER'S LIBER STUDIORUM, Reproduced in Facsimile by the Autotype Process, edited, and each Plate accompanied by a Critical Notice, by the REV. STOPFORD BROOKE, M.A.: the Plates Photographed from Examples of the best "States" in possession of the Editor; published in three volumes, each containing 24 illustrations; cloth, £12. 12*s* 1882

These parts may be had separately price £4. 4*s* each.

——— The same, bound in one fine volume oblong folio, new morocco super-extra, gt. ed., £15.

The above Autotypes give for the first time a worthy reproduction of the wonderful designs which were begun by Turner in rivalry with the Liber Veritatis of Claude. They were original studies, carefully conceived for the purpose of engraving—etched on the copper by himself, their engraving carried on day by day under his own eye, and sometimes done by his own hand.

On the importance to Artists of a profound study of these grand and thoughtful compositions Mr. Ruskin continually dilates in his "Modern Painters." In Vol. V. he sums up the lessons and the meaning of the Liber Studiorum, and reiterates the angry exclamation of the great painter, "What is the use of them," he said, "but together?" The appreciation of the public is shown by the high prices given for the complete series—as much as from £700 to £1000 having been obtained for them at recent sales. From this cause it has hitherto been impossible for people of moderate means to obtain the instruction and enjoyment which a study of the work must give, but which they may now, by the completion of the above AUTOTYPE FACSIMILE, obtain at a price which is within the reach of almost any admirer of Turner's great masterpiece.

NOTES ON THE LIBER STUDIORUM, by the REV. STOPFORD BROOKE, M.A., being the Text (re-written and re-arranged) of the above AUTOTYPE REPRODUCTION, with a fine ETCHING by FRANK SHORT, and 5 Photo-Engravings by the Autotype Company, large crown 8vo. cloth, uncut, top edges gilt, 10*s* 1885

——— The same, new half polished morocco, top edges gilt, 18*s*

Mr. Stopford Brooke is well known as one of the first authorities on Turner's Liber Studiorum, and the above work forms a companion to the original plates, and a commentary upon "the most enduring record of Turner's mind."

FRASER (Dr. W.) This valuable historical work was prepared by Mr. Fraser, with the help of Mr. Stirling of Keir (whose Family Book it resembles, and which may be considered its completion) for Sir John Maxwell of Pollok, Bart.: only 150 copies were privately printed, of which this is No. 124. The second volume consists wholly of a collection of Royal, State and Official, and Family and Domestic Letters (with abstracts), of the utmost importance in connection with the history of Scotland.

——— THE RED BOOK of MENTEITH (containing Memoirs of the Drummonds and Frasers, the Earls and Heiresses of Menteith, Histories of their Castles; the Priory, Priors, and Commendators of Inchmahome, a valuable collection of historical correspondence and other documents, etc. etc.), finely printed, with numerous facsimiles, views, portraits of eminent Scotsmen and Scotswomen, and other illustrations, 2 thick vols. 4to. red cloth, heraldically gilt, top edges gilt, exceedingly scarce, £20. Edinburgh, 1880

Only one hundred and fifty copies of the above work were (like the rest of Dr. Fraser's valuable publications on Scottish genealogical history) privately printed, and as they were all distributed in quarters whence they were unlikely to be removed, it is a most uncommon occurrence for one of them to be offered for sale.

This elaborate Genealogical Monograph is invaluable to the Herald, the Antiquary, and the Historian; and has become excessively scarce, all the copies having been distributed among the author's friends.

The labour was no doubt one of love; yet the mere arrangement of materials so extensive, and gathered from so many quarters, cannot but have taken much time and care, and the power of producing from them a narrative so pleasant and readable is not given to every writer of family history."—Edinburgh Review, 1877.

The above work is one of the handsomest of Messrs. Didot's many elegant publications, and the illustrations are in every way worthy of the charming subject, who is sympathetically pourtrayed, anatomized, and glorified in all her enchanting artificiality in one of the most characteristic works of the MM. de Goncourt.

GRAMMAR:—Pylades of Brescia, Vocabularium, 4to. PRINTED ON VELLUM, red morocco, gilt edges, from the Wodhull collection, £18. 18*s*
Impressum Brixiæ per Iacobum Britannicum, M.IID [1498]

Unknown to Brunet, and believed to be the only copy which has occurred for sale. It is a most curious early elementary work, containing a list of Latin words arranged in alphabetical order, with synonyms and illustrative explanations in prose and prose.

The first article in the alphabet is Abacus, of which the author says that there were at that time some made of wood and some of marble. Instead of Shakespeare's Seven Ages of Man, we have here only five divisions of life.

"Quinq; hominū Aetates. Infans. Puer. atq; Adolescēs Tres faciunt. Iuvenes quartam. Quintam Seniores."

A little further on, there is "As & partes eius." Some of the items in this Glossary are hardly such as would now find their way into a book intended for the use of the young.

Collation: a-c in eights; d, 9 leaves.

Early English Educational works on the German language do not exist in print, and even autograph MSS. of them are of the rarest occurrence, insomuch that the present appears to be the only one which has ever been offered for sale. Grammatical treatises upon the Low-Dutch are, on the contrary, extremely numerous.

THE ISHAM REPRINTS:

HAKE (E., M.P. for New Windsor, temp. Q. Elizabeth) NEWES OUT OF POWLES CHURCHYARDE, written in English Satyrs; accurately reprinted in black letter by WHITTINGHAM, from the excessively rare Edition of 1579 in the possession of SIR CHARLES ISHAM, Bart., of Lamport Hall, Northants, edited, with an Introduction and Extracts, from the Author's other Works, by CHARLES EDMONDS, 8vo. black letter, wrapping vellum, £1. 10*s* John Charlewood and Richard Jhones, 1579 [1872]

——— The same, PRINTED ON VELLUM, bound in white vellum, front edges turned in, wholly uncut, £7. 10*s*

ONLY TWO COPIES OF THIS WORK ARE KNOWN. Its RARITY, however, is not its only recommendation, for it throws much light on the manners and customs of the time. It consists of a spirited dialogue (in eight Satyrs, as they are called) between Bertulph and Paul as they walk in the aisle of St. Paul's Cathedral, then a favourite resort both for business and pleasure. The author inveighs with much severity on the abuses in all branches of society, attacking the rapacity and idleness of Church dignitaries, the corruption and partiality of judges, and the greediness of counsel and attorneys; the tricks and practices of physicians, apothecaries, and surgeons; the unnecessary extravagance of living and consequent ruin of thoughtless persons: the wickedness of bawds, usurers, brokers, etc.

ONLY FOUR COPIES WERE TAKEN ON VELLUM of this beautiful reprint (of which the present copy is No. 3), and only 131 copies in all of the whole edition, each copy being signed by the Editor.

HAKLUYT (RICHARD) The PRINCIPAL NAVIGATIONS, VOYAGES, TRAFFIQUES, and DISCOVERIES of the ENGLISH NATION, made by Sea or Overland, to the remote and farthest distant quarters of the Earth, at any time within the compasse of these 1600 yeares (Lord Essex's Voyage in admirable facsimile), 3 vols. folio in 2, black letter, russia extra, gilt edges (vol. 3 being shorter than the first volume is stilted to size), £21. R. Barker, etc., 1598-1600

The above should be a desirable copy to such as desire to possess this most interesting of books at a moderate price.

——— The same, REPRINTED from the above RARE EDITION, with Additions, selected and edited by G. WOODFALL, 5 vols.—SUPPLEMENTARY VOLUME, containing pieces chiefly published by Hakluyt or at his suggestion, but not included in his celebrated Compilation—together 6 vols. royal 4to. newly bound in mottled calf extra, panelled sides, yellow edges (A HANDSOME SET), £28. 1809-12

"Among the many distinguished persons, who, within the last seventeen years, have occupied the most exalted stations in the country, there is scarcely one of whom posterity will not have, in some part of this series of Sketches, the most accurate representation that the pencil can convey; a representation, in which the fidelity of the more elaborate Portrait is combined with a degree of freedom and spirit that the more elaborate Portrait very rarely exhibits. Nor is it only a collection of Portraits of the most eminent public characters of the day, that posterity will possess in these Sketches; but so vigilant has been the eye, and so prompt the pencil of their Author, that there has scarcely been an incident of any interest in the political world, since the publication commenced, which he has failed to record."—Preface.

This remarkable volume contains two different impressions of a collection of Proverbs, ascribed in the former to George Herbert, under his initials, and in the latter with his name in full. In the present copy the words on the title-page of the first edition, By Mr. G. H., have been scored through with a pen, as if some one had questioned Herbert's concern in the publication: but since it is publicly given to him in that of 1651, there seems no adequate ground for questioning his connexion with it.

Dr. Bliss notes on the fly-leaf: "The first edition of Geo. Herbert's Proverbs is peculiarly scarce. It differs considerably from that of 1651, here bound up with it."

The above has been made up by the former possessor out of several copies. Vol. 3 (from William the Conqueror until the year 1577) wants the dedication to Lord Burghley and the Preface. Moreover, the Title is a facsimile, and the "Castrations" and part of the Table have been supplied by reprints. Some of the leaves, also, are rather short, and others have been cut into, but not materially. Vols. 1 and 2, however, containing the excellent Descriptions and Histories of England, Ireland, and Scotland, are fine and perfect copies.

"The Chronicle of Holinshed merits a high title. It is more full and complete than any of its predecessors, and less loaded with trifling matter. The Description of England by the Rev. W. It is scarcely too much to say that a more beautiful, valuable, and interesting series of Books than the preceding never issued from the press. Not only is the Letterpress extremely valuable, reuniting as it does the information comprised in many and expensive works, but the Illustrations, both Chromolithographs and Wood Engravings, present the perfection of each art. The latter, no less than 2000 in number, are accurately copied from the originals, many of which are rare and difficult of access, and the Chromolithographs are facsimiles of illuminations in precious MSS. preserved in various public and private collections.

"A book which Goethe thought worthy of translating into German with the pen of 'Faust' and 'Wilhelm Meister,' a book which Auguste Comte placed upon his very limited list for the perusal of reformed humanity, is one with which we have the right to be occupied, not once or twice, but over and over again. It cannot lose its freshness. What attracted the encyclopædic minds of men so different as Comte and Goethe to its pages still remains there. This attractive or compulsive quality, to put the matter briefly, is the flesh and blood reality of Cellini's self-delineation."

A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THEATRICAL LITERATURE.

In demy 8vo. (100 pages), cloth, 18*s*

A BIBLIOGRAPHICAL ACCOUNT of ENGLISH THEATRICAL LITERATURE, from the Earliest Times to the Present Day, by ROBERT W. LOWE.

The present work is intended to supply in some measure a want which has been felt by all writers on theatrical subjects, as ell as by all collectors of theatrical books. It consists of about 2000 titles, the great majority of which are taken directly from the orks described. These will be arranged alphabetically, with exhaustive cross-references. Notes regarding each actor and actress ill be given, and also an account of the occurrences to which particular works refer, special attention being paid to the less nown and more curious pamphlets. Thus, it is hoped, the work will have an historical as well as bibliographical value, and will orm a History of the Stage, especially in those details of which regular histories take little or no cognizance. Plays will be xcluded, except where they have prefaces, etc., of historical or controversial interest; and of Shakespeariana, only such works will e included as relate to the performance of Shakespeare's plays or the representation of his characters by particular actors. uotations of prices at recent famous sales will be given, and the rarity of scarce books will be pointed out.

DE OMNIBUS REBUS": an Old Man's Discursive Ramblings on the Road of Every-day Life.

"These pages are written in the character of a shrewd, observant, and perhaps satirical, but not ill-natured, old bachelor ho knows how to find in his journeyings, by omnibus or otherwise, matter for reflection or comment, and who communicates miliarly his impressions of men and things, turning them about so as to get at their humourous, their practical, and their thetic aspect. With these he mingles past and present experiences of life, congenial episodes, and representative types of aracter as they suggest themselves to his memory; but his gossip is always popular in character, bearing on subjects of social onomy and contemporary ethics necessarily interesting to our common humanity."

In the course of a long and eulogistic review, the Times says of this book:—

"If there was any doubt as to the Monuments of Central India being famous, it would be removed by the appearance of this magnificent volume. . . . As India is never likely to become a ground much frequented by tourists, Sir Lepel Griffin's collection will bring these remarkable Monuments before a far larger audience, and show people who can never hope to visit the spot their architectural and sculptural beauties. . . . This superb volume reflects the highest credit on the printer and binder, as well as on the Autotype Company. . . . It rests with the Art-World of Europe and the Princes of Central India, who have a direct concern in the subject, to show that Sir Lepel Griffin's efforts are appreciated, and of this there can be little doubt, as a more beautiful volume in all its details has seldom been issued from an English press."

This remarkably fine and interesting work is generally recognised as an especially appropriate gift-book for the present Season. Specimens of the illustrations attracted great attention at the late Colonial and Indian Exhibition.

NEW EDITION OF THE IMPERIAL GAZETTEER OF INDIA.

PUBLISHED BY COMMAND OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

JUST COMPLETE:

Fourteen Volumes, 8vo., Half Morocco.

THE IMPERIAL GAZETTEER OF INDIA.

BY

SIR WILLIAM WILSON HUNTER, K.C.S.I., C.I.E., LL.D.,

ADDITIONAL MEMBER OF THE VICEROY'S COUNCIL,
LATE DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF STATISTICS TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Price to Subscribers, £3. 3s. the set of 14 Volumes.

SUBSCRIBERS can now be supplied by Messrs. H. SOTHERAN & Co.

The First Edition of this grand work was exhausted within a few months after publication, and so great has been the subsequent demand for it that second-hand copies have been realizing nearly double the publication price.

In 1883 the Secretary of State for India, in Council, ordered a Second Edition to be prepared, and DR. HUNTER was instructed to thoroughly revise the contents, and base all the statistics upon the then recently taken census of 1881.

The First Edition consisted of Nine 8vo. volumes, half morocco, and was published at £3. 3s. This New Edition consists of Fourteen volumes; and in order that it may be placed within the reach of all those who may be interested in India, the Secretary of State has directed that these Fourteen volumes similarly bound in half morocco shall be supplied to Subscribers at the unprecedentedly low price of £3. 3s the set.

The singular importance of this work justifies the insertion of the following reviews:—

"The Imperial Gazetteer will be the fruit and condensation of a series of Statistical Surveys of each of the Administrative or Political Divisions of India, specially and minutely compiled within moderate limits of time."—Despatch from the Secretary of State to the Government of India, dated 22nd February, 1877.

"A great work has been unostentatiously carried on for the last twelve years in India, the importance of which it is impossible to exaggerate, and the results of which are now, in a carefully digested form, presented to the public. This is nothing less than a complete Statistical Survey of the entire British Empire in Hindustan, which Dr. Hunter has condensed into the practical form of an Imperial Gazetteer of India."—TIMES (first notice).

"The publication of the Imperial Gazetteer of India marks the completion of the largest national enterprise in statistics which has ever been undertaken. This gigantic work has been carried out under the uninterrupted direction of Dr. Hunter, its original designer, from the initial stage of local inquiry in each of the 240 Districts of India to the final arrangement of the results in an alphabetical form. . . . The great value of this work is not only that it gives for the first time a complete account of India, and places in a clear light before our eyes the political, social, and physical condition of millions of our fellow-subjects, of whom before we had no accurate conception; but that it also breaks the long spell of disappointment and failure, which has hitherto hung over the efforts of the Indian Government towards an elucidation of the country it governs. Hitherto no one has believed in Indian statistics. Every official statement made on any Indian subject has been contradicted point-blank. . . . The volumes supply for the first time, materials by means of which British statesmen at home, and the British public at large, can criticize the actions of our Proconsuls in the East. Both Englishmen and native Indians will be thankful for a work, the accuracy, fulness of detail, completeness of information, and masterly arrangement of which constitute it a real and invaluable help to all who do honest work in India, and to all who honestly judge of Indian work at home. . . . It is one of the grandest works of administrative statistics which have ever been issued by any nation, and should earn for its author and designer the gratitude of everyone who has the welfare and good government of our Indian empire at heart."—TIMES (second notice).

"A model of combined lucidity, conciseness, and comprehensiveness. . . . Emphatically a great work—great in its magnitude, and still greater in the beneficial results it is calculated to produce."—ECONOMIST.

LA BRUYÈRE (J. de), The "Characters" of, newly rendered into English by Henri van Laun, with an Introduction, Biographical Memoir, and copious Notes, illustrated with 7 etched portraits by B. Of this fine edition only 300 copies have been printed, and no more will be published.

"La Bruyère is not a speculative Moralist, but an Observer of the Manners of Men, or, as he likes to call himself, a Philosopher, and above all a Christian Philosopher, such as a friend of Bossuet ought to be. He was the first to make morality attractive, and to paint characters in a literary and delicate manner."

"His style has been praised for its conciseness and picturesqueness; he always employs the right word in the right place, is correct in his expressions, varied in his thoughts, highly imaginative, and, therefore, may be called a perfect literary artist.  His 'Characters' will, I think, be read for many ages, be found very entertaining, and, what cannot be said of the works of every classical French author, will be better liked the more they are read."—H. van Laun.

RARE EARLY LAW BOOKS.

LITTLETON'S TENURES:—TENORES NOUELLI impressi per me Wilhelmum le tailleur in opulentissima ciuitate rothomagensi iuxta prioratum sancti laudi ad instantiam Richardi Pynson; also, Natura Brevium, and Old Book of Tenures, scilicet: "This booke with the Natura Brevium was Emprynted by me Rychard Pynson at the Instaunce of my maistres of the company of stronde Inne with oute tempyll Barre. off londoñ, with large woodcut frontispiece with the Royal Arms, those of Westminster, the Tudor Rose, etc., 3 vols. folio in one, black letter, old calf antique, stamped sides, fore-edges uncut (excessively rare), £25. circa 1510-18

A most interesting volume, and so excessively rare that no copies of any of the three works seem to have occurred for sale. The copy of Littleton in the Inner Temple Library—long supposed to be the first edition and highly prized—wants the table which is present in the above.

This copy forms the basis of an article on Dr. Andrew Borde, in Vol. VI. of the Sussex Arch. Coll. by Mark Antony Lower, it being copiously annotated by George Boorde and Thomas Gryffith, the former a member of a well-known but now extinct Sussex family. Littleton's work has been termed "the principal pillar on which the law of real property in this kingdom is supported," and the above is probably the rarest and most desirable copy which has ever occurred for sale. Moreover it is doubtful if there exist in any private library a copy of any one of the above works.

"Strikingly few Gallicisms are to be found in the work, which appears to be not only the best translation of Molière in existence but the best to be hoped. Those unfortunate enough to be unable to read Molière in the original will obtain from this version as correct an impression as can be hoped of the first of comic dramatists. As we have said, however, the value of the book does not end here. IT IS A DIRECT AND VALUABLE CONTRIBUTION TO EUROPEAN SCHOLARSHIP."—Athenæum.

"The Translator has endeavoured to give not only a faithful English version of the great Dramatist, but has also sought to preserve the spirit and brilliancy of the original. The Language and allusions of MOLIÈRE having become antiquated through the lapse of more than two centuries, such obscurities are elucidated in Notes, and a Critical and Historical Introduction is prefixed to each play. An interesting and characteristic feature in this edition is the printing as Appendixes to the various dramatic pieces the passages which have been borrowed or adapted from Molière by our English Dramatists."

MORE (Hannah) WORKS; with Memoir of her Life, and Notes, portrait and vignettes, 11 vols. fcp. 8vo. new half calf gilt, £1. 15*s* 1854

Horace Walpole declared that Hannah More "was not only one of the cleverest of women, but one of the best. Her writings (said he) promote virtue; and their repeated editions prove their worth and utility."

"She did, perhaps, as much real good in her generation as any woman that ever held the pen. How many have thanked God for the hour that first made them acquainted with the writings of Hannah More."—Quarterly Review, Vol. 52.

MORE (Sir Thomas): DE OPTIMO REIP. STATU, deque nova insula UTOPIA libellus vere aureus; EPIGRAMMATA Thomae Mori Britanni; Epigrammata ERASMI; title-borders by Holbein, those to the Utopia and Preface being SIGNED, in one vol. 4to. very fine large copies, new calf gilt, £3. 16*s* Basileæ, Jo. Frobenius, Nov.-Decem., 1518

On the reverse of B 2 is a page-woodcut representing the City of Utopia. This is the only real edition of 1518, that which is next described belonging to 1519.

——— De Optimo Reip. Statu libellus; Epigrammata Thomæ Mori; Epigrammata Erasmi, engraved title and view of Utopia by HOLBEIN, etc., 4to. clean and perfect copy in russia, gilt edges, £2. 18*s* Basileæ, J. Frobenius, Mense Martio, 1518

This edition was published in March, 1518-19. The title to the Utopia is enclosed in a border of totally different design, illustrating partly the story of Tarquin and Lucretia. That to the Epigrams of More is occupied by naked boys blowing horns, and the lower portion is dedicated to the Roman episode of Porsena, and the border round the Epigrams of Erasmus is again distinct. None of these is signed in this impression; but the hand of the master is unmistakable.

A fine copy of a book on Mammals, whose equal has never been published in any country.

"It is unnecessary to dilate upon the splendid style in which this book is brought out, or on the ability and fidelity that characterize as well the figures as the descriptions contained in it, since these must be well known to all who have seen any of the plates. It will doubtless form the standard work of reference for the mammalia. Necessarily too expensive for general circulation, public libraries and the collections of the rich can alone possess it; but to these it is indispensable, while the manner in which it is executed renders it worthy of a place by the side of their more costly and elegant volumes."—Zoological Journal.

TORTOISES, TERRAPINS, and TURTLES, a Series of Sixty beautifully coloured Plates, drawn from life by JAMES DE CARLE SOWERBY, F.L.S., and lithographed by EDWARD LEAR, with short Descriptive Notices by DR. J. E. GRAY, impl. 4to. half morocco, top edges gilt, £2. 2s (pub. £4. 10s) 1872

This series of plates was made under the superintendence of Mr. Thomas Bell, F.R.S., F.Z.S., etc., to illustrate his "Monograph of the Testudinata," a work which was never completed because of the publisher's failure. A series of 7 parts, containing in all 40 plates, was delivered to the subscribers, but on account of the manifest incompleteness of the work, the sale was small, and the book remained but little known.

The eminent naturalist, DR. GRAY, of the British Museum, kindly edited the book in its present shape, and added a short description of each plate, with a reference in each case to a work in which the synonymy of the species is to be found. The figures are so minutely accurate and detailed, that lengthened descriptions are unnecessary; and the Publishers believe that all lovers of Natural History were glad to learn that Plates so beautiful had been rendered available for the purposes of Science.

THE growing popularity of Orchids, the ever-increasing demand for information respecting them, and the indifferent serial works relating to this lovely and important class of plants hitherto published, are sufficient reasons for issuing this work. It will be the aim of the authors to represent truthfully the natural aspect of the plants, which will be drawn life-size, and in addition to the coloured illustrations, scientific drawings of the structural parts of the flowers will be given when desirable. Some of the plant-portraits will be coloured by lithography, others will be hand-painted, as may be found expedient. To the detailed information respecting each plant will be added practical notes on its culture. It is the intention of the authors to illustrate all classes of the Orchid family, and species and varieties of garden value, whether old or new, will find a place in the work.

"GAME FISHES" is acknowledged to be the most sumptuous work ever offered to collectors of books on Angling, and its illustrations are in many respects finer than the finest natural history pictures ever published.

"The plates are exact reproductions—lithographs in water colours—of the paintings by the late S. A. KILBOURNE, of Morrisania, the studies for which were made from life, by the brook and on the shore, with the inspiration of pure air and open sky. Colour and life action are shown with striking effect, while details of form and structure are preserved with scientific accuracy, each painting having been criticized by skilful Ichthyologists."

The text was prepared by PROFESSOR G. BROWN GOODE, Assistant Director of the United States National Museum, the head of the Fishery Department of the Tenth Census, who was also Commissioner in charge of the American Department of the Berlin Fishery Exhibition. It is in no sense a compilation, but is made largely of fresh material from the investigations of the author, and by permission from the archives of the Fish Commission. It includes biographies of nearly all the important fishes of North America, many others than those shown in the plates being discussed in the text.

PRELIMINARY CRITICISMS, ETC.

Upon the merits of MR. GOULD'S Works it is unnecessary to enlarge, for it has long been acknowledged by Naturalists that they stand at the very head of their class, whether as regards the accuracy of their Drawing, or the beauty and correctness of their Colouring; to say nothing of the scientific and interesting character of the Descriptions.

Another great charm of MR. GOULD'S productions—one which from their beginning brought them into high popularity—and one which will ever secure for them the favour of all classes, whether scientific or not—is the unequalled skill displayed in the ATTITUDES, GROUPINGS, MOVEMENTS, and ACCESSORIES of the BIRDS.

In these animated pictures we indeed look upon them "in their habits as they lived,"—seeing not one, but in most cases, both the male and female, in various attitudes, sometimes sitting, sometimes on the wing; as well as the TREES which form their homes, and the PLANTS, FLOWERS, and INSECTS upon which they feed. In the Work on Humming Birds, the number and variety of the ORCHIDS introduced are additional attractions. The same important quality of NATURALNESS attaches to the figures of the MAMMALS.

"Mr. Gould has produced a series of magnificent works without a rival in the Cabinets of Science, and the Gem of every rich man's library, to which, unfortunately, works of such artistic beauty, from their great costliness, must necessarily be confined. . . . In taking a review of Mr. Gould's abours, we cannot fail to be impressed with the benefits conferred by them on Ornithological Science. These benefits are not merely confined to the introduction of New Species to our knowledge, nor yet to the elucidation of points involved in doubt, or the extrication of species or groups from a maze of confusion,—they also result from the plan of the works themselves, which constitute, as far as they go, a Complete Pictorial Museum of Ornithology, to which the student may refer at once, and without he trouble of searching for the description of one species in one publication, and of another in a second, and so on, before he is able to satisfy himself as to the novelty or the contrary of the European Bird, Toucan, Trogon, or the rest under examination."—Professor Macgillivray.

"The works of Mr. Gould constitute a new epoch in the history of Ornithology, from the boldness of the plan on which they were executed; the number of New Species added to science, and of doubtful species cleared away from previous obscurity; the unadorned fidelity of the Descriptions; the exquisite Accuracy of the Plates, in which the utmost adherence to nature is united with that felicitous effect which stamps the artist, and proves that GRACE AND TRUTHFULNESS MAY MEET TOGETHER. Again, Mr. Gould's works form in themselves an Ornithological Museum; pictorial we grant, but of uch a character as to obviate the necessity of a collection of mounted specimens obtained at no trifling ost, and preserved, even where room can be afforded for them, not without the greatest trouble."—The Times.

DESCRIPTIVE LIST OF

THE MAGNIFICENT SERIES OF

GRAND ORNITHOLOGICAL & OTHER WORKS

BY THE LATE

JOHN GOULD, F.R.S., F.Z.S., ETC.,

PURCHASED FROM HIS EXECUTORS AND NOW PUBLISHED BY

HENRY SOTHERAN & CO.

⁂ THE ADVERTISERS beg to call the special attention of the public to the fact that very few copies of any of Mr. GOULD'S Works remain for sale, and that they cannot be reproduced.

They are all published in unison with each other, in Imperial Folio, with the Plates and Descriptions in the same style, so as to form in themselves a regular series.

With regard to the COLOURING of the Plates, some have supposed that it has been produced by a mechanical process such as Chromo-Lithography. So far from this being the case, every sky, with its varied tints, and every feather of each bird, has been COLOURED, under the most careful superintendence, BY HAND.

"No work of greater beauty will be produced than that on which John Gould, returning in his later life to his first love, bestowed the fulness of his energy and the acme of his artistic talent. We allude to his 'Birds of Great Britain.' The care bestowed on the plates of this work was remarkable, the aim of the author being to produce a picture of the birds as they appeared in their Natural Haunts, and especial pains were bestowed on the Young, particularly those of the Wading-Birds and Natators. In this fine work most of the drawings were developed and placed on stone by Mr. W. HART, who also executed all the plates of the later works."—Nature, 1881.

Undoubtedly the most universally attractive of all MR. GOULD'S publications, who thus speaks of it:—"Having from an early period devoted himself to the study of these beautiful birds, and acquired a most valuable and extensive collection of a group peculiar to America and its adjacent islands, the Author determined upon publishing a Monograph of a family unequalled for the gorgeous and ever-changing brilliancy of their hues, the variety of their form, the singularity of their habits, and the extent of their territorial distribution."

THE TROGONIDÆ, or FAMILY of TROGONS. Second Edition, containing nearly 50 coloured plates, with copious Descriptions:

New half morocco extra, gilt edges 12 12 0

New whole morocco extra, gilt edges 14 14 0

The present new edition comprises all the New Species, and information acquired respecting this family of Birds during the last twenty-five years.

"The Trogons may dispute the palm of beauty with the Humming Birds. Their plumage in certain parts shines with metallic brilliancy, and exhibits all the colours of the rainbow."—Griffith's Edition of Cuvier. They are also remarkable for THE IMMENSE LENGTH OF THEIR TAILS.

RECENTLY COMPLETED, UNDER THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MR. BOWDLER SHARPE, OF THE BRITISH MUSEUM.

THE BIRDS of ASIA, comprising 530 plates, most beautifully coloured by hand after Nature in the most perfect manner attainable; with copious Descriptions, complete in 35 parts . . . . each 3 3 0

Bound in 7 vols. new half morocco extra, gilt edges . . . 120 0 0

Or the 7 vols. superbly bound in whole morocco, gilt edges . . 145 0 0

⁂ With the Thirty-fifth Part are issued complete Titles to the volumes; or in MR. SHARPE'S words, "The Work has been arranged according to the classifications adopted by MR. GOULD throughout his lifetime; and in giving Title-pages and Indexes to the Species, I have added the exact dates of publication for the benefit of Ornithologists who wish to quote the work."—August, 1883.

The very few COMPLETE SETS it was possible to make up having been for some time disposed of, the work is now wholly out of print, and is rapidly becoming as scarce and valuable as Mr. Gould's other works.

It only remains to state (what is well known to nearly all those acquainted with the subject) that Mr. Gould's death in no way interrupted the completion of the work with the same care which he took during his lifetime, the Publishers having carried it on to its conclusion by the agency of his whole staff of assistants and colourers, under the invaluable superintendence of MR. BOWDLER SHARPE, of the British Museum, who had been his friend and "right hand" during the later years of his life.

"To no portion of the globe (says the Author) does there attach so much interest as to that vast extent of the Old World which we designate Asia. That the Zoology, then, of such a country should have called forth the notice and study of able minds cannot be surprising; and yet it is remarkable that no one has attempted a work comprehending a general history of its ORNITHOLOGY. This hiatus the present publication is intended to fill up."

MR. GOULD'S GRAND ORNITHOLOGICAL WORKS, continued:—

In continuation of "The Birds of Australia," by the same Author. £ s. d.

THE BIRDS OF NEW GUINEA, and adjacent Papuan Islands, with Descriptions. Parts I to XXIV (containing 310 coloured plates) . each 3 3 0

The Work will be completed in 1 more part, making a total of 25 parts.

"It is admitted (says Mr. Gould) that New Guinea, or Papua, and the Papuan Islands [the former is separated only by Torres Strait from Queensland], have the FINEST BIRDS IN CREATION—THE PARADISEIDÆ, which have many different decorations, and must be seen in the Drawings to understand their forms: also THE FINEST PARROTS, KINGFISHERS, and PITTAS."

⁂ The death of Mr. Gould has in no way interfered with the completion of this fine Work, nor has the execution been in any respect inferior to his own portion of it. At his death he left a large number of Drawings for the continuation of all his Works, and he explained his wishes regarding them to his friend, Mr. BOWDLER SHARPE, of the British Museum (the Author, with Mr. Dresser, of the "Birds of Europe"), and this eminent Ornithologist undertook to continue all the Publications left unfinished at the time of Mr. Gould's decease, including the Letterpress to the present Work.

The Publishers also retained the services of Mr. GOULD'S WHOLE STAFF of ARTISTS and COLOURERS; and Mr. HART, who has for so many years been entrusted with the execution of the Plates, has superintended the whole of the Illustrations.

THE RAMPHASTIDÆ, or FAMILY of TOUCANS, second and enlarged edition, with all the plates redrawn: containing 52 coloured plates, with copious Descriptions, new half morocco extra, gilt edges 12 12 0

New whole morocco extra, gilt edges 14 14 0

The Toucans constitute a group of Birds confined to the tropical portions of America. They are distinguished by the richness and strong contrasts of the Colouring of their Plumage, and particularly by the enormous size of their Bills.

THE ODONTOPHORINÆ, or PARTRIDGES of AMERICA, comprising 32 coloured plates, with copious Descriptions, new half morocco extra, gilt edges 10 10 0

Elegantly bound in whole morocco extra, gilt edges 12 12 0

"This (says Mr. Gould), the result of twenty years' investigation of the subject, is perhaps the most perfect as well as the most important of the Author's Ornithological Monographs."

He further says: "The interest which attaches to this work is threefold. First, it displays, even to the most unpractised eye, the broad distinction which subsists between the Partridges of America and those of Europe; secondly, the species are all remarkable for the elegance of their forms and for the chaste beauty of their colouring; and thirdly, at no distant date these Birds will be regarded in America, as our Partridges in Europe are, as game, and perhaps preserved by law—their flesh being as delicate for the table as that of our ordinary bird, from which, however, they differ considerably in the structure of the beak, and in general habits and economy."

THE MAMMALS of AUSTRALIA, 3 vols., containing 130 coloured plates, with Descriptions, new half morocco extra, gilt edges 42 0 0

New whole morocco extra, gilt edges 48 0 0

The Author's visit to Australia had enabled him to procure so much valuable information respecting the habits and economy, and many new species, of the singular and interesting Mammalia of that country, that he determined upon publishing a work on the subject.

"With respect to the importance of such a publication," says he, "no doubts can exist; and as I am deeply impressed with this idea, so shall I endeavour to render it equal to its associate work on the Ornithology of that remarkable region. To the Plates every attention, even to the minutest detail, has been rendered; and my original Notes and Observations have furnished one with a store to draw upon for many points of interest. In execution it is precisely similar to the 'Birds;' and it has been so highly approved of, that by many it is regarded as more interesting than the 'Birds' of the same country."

"In this work, the Animals themselves are not only figured, but Portraits of them from life are delineated, of which we cannot but notice one of Landseerian vigour—the physiognomy of the Tasmanian Wolf. In the publication of such a work Mr. Gould confesses that he has departed from his original purpose of confining himself solely to Ornithology, and owns that, with such a profusion of materials at his command, he was tempted to overstep his self-assigned limits. The scientific world ought to be thankful to him for having yielded to a temptation which, contrary to the normal rule, is productive of good."—The Times.

MR. GOULD'S GRAND ORNITHOLOGICAL WORKS, continued :— £ s. d.

HANDBOOK to the BIRDS of AUSTRALIA, 2 vols. royal 8vo. cloth (a necessary adjunct to the folio Work on this subject) 2 10 0

The Author says that since the publication of his "folio work on the Birds of Australia, many new species have been discovered, and much additional information acquired respecting those comprised therein ; it therefore appeared to me that a careful resumé of the entire subject in an octavo form, without plates, would be useful to the possessor of the folio edition, as well as to the many persons in Australia who are now turning their attention to the Ornithology of the country in which they are resident."

"The two volumes (he also says) contain a considerable amount of interesting information, and descriptions of many species not in the folio edition."

SYNOPSIS of the BIRDS of AUSTRALIA and ADJACENT ISLANDS, with 72 coloured plates, in 1 vol. royal 8vo. new half morocco 5 0 0

THIS WORK (even more than the "HANDBOOK") SHOULD BE IN THE HANDS OF EVERY AUSTRALIAN COLONIST who cares for the Natural History of his country, as the Descriptions and Illustrations enable him to identify with ease the various Birds he may come across in his out-of-door life.

"The object of the present publication (says the Author), is in the first instance to make known and record in an eligible form the vast accessions which Science has latterly acquired from this portion of the globe; and in order to render it of real value and utility to the men of Science of all countries, he has given, besides a Latin and English description, measurement, synonyms, etc., A FIGURE OF THE HEAD OF THE NATURAL SIZE OF EVERY SPECIES, a feature not to be found in preceding works of a similar nature, and by which each may at once be distinguished, hitherto a matter of some difficulty, particularly in those that are nearly allied."

GREEN (J. F.) Ocean Birds, with Preface by A. G. Guillemard, and a Treatise on Skinning Birds by Dr. F. H. H. Guillemard, with 6 large and fine chromo-lithographic plates by Frances E. Green, royal 4to. cloth, 17*s* 6*d* 1887

"The following Notes on Ocean Birds, their appearance and habits, have been compiled with the special object of interesting and instructing a special class of readers—those who are led by business, pleasure, etc. to take a long sea voyage. The birds depicted and described in them are those usually seen in the course of a voyage from England to Australia or N. Z. round the Cape of Good Hope, and home round Cape Horn, thus completing a tour round the world. Those of us alone who have made a voyage of this kind can appreciate fully the interest which attaches to Ocean Bird-life."—Preface.

"Nearly nine years ago I published a small treatise, entitled 'The Soul,' which was designed as an essay towards putting Theology on its true basis. In the following pages an attempt is made considerably in advance of the former. Naturally the general outlines are the same, but on some points a careful reader will discover variations which it is not important here to specify. Nine years of closer acquaintance with the noblest kind of (self-entitling) Atheism have enabled me, I trust, to express more simply and truly the strength of Theism."—Preface.

This fine Series comprises Sterne's Tristram Shandy, and Sentimental Journey; Reeve's Old English Baron; Walpole's Castle of Otranto; Beckford's Vathek; Johnson's Rasselas; Defoe's Robinson Crusoe; Swift's Gulliver's Travels, and Tale of a Tub: Arabian Nights, edited by J. Scott; Le Sage's Gil Blas, Asmodeus, Bachelor of Salamanca, and Vanillo Gonzales; Mendoza's Lazarillo de Tormes; Aleman's Guzman d'Alfarache.

"Among the numerous handsome reprints which the publishers of the day vie with each other in producing, we have seen nothing of greater merit than this series. Those who have read these masterpieces of the last century in the homely garb of the old editions may be gratified with the opportunity of perusing them with the advantages of large clear print and illustrations of a quality which is rarely bestowed on such re-issues. The series deserves every commendation."—Times.

It is impossible to give here anything like an adequate idea of the vast amount of curious information in these volumes. The Hundreds of Literary Celebrities brought forward, not merely by passing Anecdotes, but by highly valuable memoirs and sketches, and the mass of bibliographical and literary matter in the two works, render them one of the most permanently interesting sets of books ever published.

This book is far preferable to the English translation, because in the latter the plates are not so clear, having probably been worked from the same originals. "M. Victor Place avait été chargé par le gouvernement français de continuer les recherches commencées par Botta ; son bel ouvrage traite d'abord de l'architecture Ninivite ; il décrit, avec des essais de restauration, le palais et la ville bâtis par le fondateur du second empire d'Assyrie, examine et analyse les bas-reliefs et les peintures à fresque et sur émail ; enfin on y trouve un livre spécial consacré à la métallurgie, au travail des pierres, aux armes, outils, instruments, débris d'une civilisation primitive, et en dernier lieu aux inscriptions cunéiformes, dont plusieurs fac-simile sont reproduits."—Brunet.

This fine work was printed at the expense of the French Government, for Presents only, and not for Sale ; consequently it was never issued to the public. The Plates are executed in a very superior manner. Copies have realized £34.

Although various works on the Art of Ornamentation have been published during the last few years, the advertisers have reason to believe that RACINET'S POLYCHROMATIC ORNAMENT has been found superior to them all in many important respects. The majority are either purely elementary, or confined to one particular branch of the subject, while the remainder are so costly that they are quite beyond the reach of the ordinary student. The present work is not only sold at a price which renders it available for all purposes of study and manufacture, but it is also so comprehensive that it forms in itself a complete library of the subject. The plates are executed with a degree of finish never before attained in a similar work, and in fact only recently rendered possible by the late improvements in the art of colour-printing.

POLYCHROMATIC DECORATION, as applied to Buildings, in the Mediæval Styles, by W. and G. AUDSLEY, Fellows of the Royal Institute of British Architects, and Authors of several Works of Art, 36 folio plates executed in the highest style of chromolithography, in colours and gold, with descriptive letterpress.

THE INTRODUCTORY TEXT CONTAINS A BRIEF HISTORICAL ESSAY, AND PRACTICAL HINTS ON THE PROCESS OF PAINTING—OIL, TEMPERA, AND WAX PAINTING—PREPARING THE DESIGN, AND TRANSFERRING THE SAME TO THE WALLS OR OTHER PORTIONS OF A BUILDING, AND THE PRINCIPLES OF DECORATIVE DESIGN AND COLOURING.

One Volume Folio, Cloth extra, top edges gilt, £2. (pub. £3.) 1882

This work has been produced with the aim of placing in the hands of Architectural Students, Decorative Artists, and Practical Painters, a volume which will serve as a rudimentary grammar of Gothic Polychromatic Decoration, suitable for use in the present day; and also with the view of furnishing a series of designs, based on Mediæval authorities, of great suggestive value to the student.

It is worthy of remark that, among the numerous works which have of late years been produced in this and other countries, not one has professed to be a systematic Treatise devoted to the Polychromatic Decoration of Ecclesiastical and Domestic Buildings in the Gothic styles. Books have been published containing fragmentary illustrations of Mediæval Ornamentation, and some have appeared in foreign countries, devoted to the monographical representation of the Polychromatic Decoration of modern or restored ancient buildings. Valuable as such works are, they scarcely can be called practical, nor do they meet the demands of the present time, in which a practical and suggestive guide is much wanted by all who have anything to do with this branch of decorative art. The great cost of the foreign Monographs unfortunately places them beyond the reach of many.

In the preparation of the Plates, great care has been taken to compile the different designs so that they shall meet the chief wants in every-day work; and the patterns are drawn and coloured so that they may offer the maximum amount of suggestive material to those who desire to prepare special designs for their own use. All the designs are described, and their most appropriate application pointed out.

The accurate and beautiful manner in which the Plates have been produced in the ateliers of Messrs. Firmin-Didot et Cie., of Paris, leaves nothing to be desired in this important particular. The whole work has been produced in the highest style of printing.

It is impossible to speak in terms too high of this splendid National Portrait Gallery. "It is impossible," says Sir Walter Scott, "to conceive a work which ought to be more interesting to the present age." Historical portraits are illustrations of History, and in this Collection are comprised the most celebrated of the fathers of the English people as they lived, taken from the authentic paintings of their contemporaries.

The folio is the only library edition, the plates of which were destroyed after publication. "The plan is admirable, and the execution of it throughout is entitled to equal praise. Such a union of various talents—such a Gallery of illustrious dead, was scarcely ever before presented to the eyes of the public, in colours almost as vivid and sparkling as if the originals occupied the canvas whence these copies were taken."—Dr. Dibdin.

"The Times" on the Annual Register.

The following notice of the volume for 1886 will be found worthy of being printed at length:—

"The 'Annual Register' for 1886.—This volume does not fall behind its 127 predecessors. Events have crowded upon one another so rapidly since the beginning of last year, and the complexion of public affairs in this country has altered so much, that it is interesting and instructive to read the events of what may be called the year of three Cabinets. It is true that Lord Salisbury was Prime Minister at the beginning of last year, as he is now; but the changes in the state of parties that have occurred since then are unparalleled in the experience of the present generation. A weak Ministry surrendered at the first attack made upon a mere outpost, an attack led by Mr. Jesse Collings and supported by Mr. Chamberlain. How Mr. Gladstone succeeded to power for a few months and, on being defeated on the Irish question, appealed to the country and was defeated by a crushing majority, and how the Liberal Ministry was rejected and the party shattered, these things are told in the present volume in an easy and continuous narrative at considerable length and with praiseworthy impartiality; and the details are, almost without exception, trustworthy. The volume is divided, as is customary, into two parts. The one deals with English as well as with foreign and colonial history. Nearly half of the book is devoted to English history. In the 194 pages which relate to foreign and colonial matters, sufficient importance is given to the relations of Turkey with the minor States of Eastern Europe, and to the other matter which chiefly concerned England, the negotiations relative to Central Asia and Afghanistan. Part II. contains a chronicle of events, a retrospect of literature, science, and art, and an obituary of eminent persons. The book would not be complete without a full index, and this the publishers, Messrs. Rivington, have supplied. As a clear and impartial record of the events of the year, easy for reference, and well proportioned in dealing with events of greater or less importance, the 'Annual Register' is at the head of all publications issued year by year, and is in fact unique."

⁂ Complete Sets from the beginning in 1758 to the present time can always be supplied by the Advertisers (SEE ABOVE) who beg further to announce that, they having purchased the whole of the remaining Stock of the volumes previous to that now advertised, the present is a favourable opportunity (as the stock is rapidly diminishing) of Completing imperfect Sets of the Work. They are also ready to PURCHASE Incomplete Copies.

This valuable work (familiarly known as Dodsley's Annual Register), is indispensable to all good libraries, comprehending as it does a detailed view of the Politics, Parliamentary History, Commerce, Statistics, Biography, Literature, etc., of the last Century and a quarter.

It was projected by the Right Hon. Edmund Burke, who was for some years Editor and Principal Contributor, and has been carried on with equal ability and trustworthiness ever since.

The Advertisers would call attention to the great fitness of a complete set, properly bound, for a Memorial Gift to any public institution at the present time.

The Public Library which lacks sets of the ANNUAL REGISTER and HANSARD'S DEBATES opens its doors to Historical Students, Politicians, Journalists, and all intelligent readers of the daily paper, only to send them away again in disappointment and chagrin.

From their first issue to the present time, "HANSARD'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES" have enjoyed the highest possible reputation for the accuracy of their Reports, and for the skill and care with which the volumes are compiled. The best proof of their correctness is found in the fact that they have rendered unnecessary any Official Reports of Parliamentary Debates, and quotations from them are received in both Houses with the respect usually given to Official Documents. As a book of reference, "Hansard" is indispensable to every Member of Parliament, and to every public institution of importance, and should be the pride of every Englishman, giving as it does a record possessed by no other nation now existing—ITS CONTINUOUS PARLIAMENTARY HISTORY FOR A PERIOD OF MORE THAN EIGHT HUNDRED YEARS.

The advertisers have long been engaged in making up sets of "Hansard" and the "Annual Register," and will always be glad to hear from gentlemen desirous of purchasing or disposing of the same.

An important set, not often occurring for sale. Its interest and value it is needless to point out to the philologist or historian, beyond remarking that it is full of details from old records and monuments, illustrating the still-spoken Gaelic dialect and the curious history of a community from which its insignificance has preserved its autonomy to the present day.

To all who take an interest in the Antiquities of the Northern Counties such a set as the above is of the greatest importance and value, as the publications comprise inedited MSS. illustrative of the moral, the intellectual, the religious, and the social condition of those parts of England which constituted the ancient kingdom of Northumberland.

"There can be no better book for a drawing-room table, to suggest subjects of talk or pass the moments perdus than 'Mr. Punch's Victorian Era.' . . . They put the points on all the critical periods of our Parliamentary History, and indicate in effective outline the action of political celebrities."—Times.

PURITAN DIVINES, comprising the Works of GOODWIN, CHARNOCK, SWINNOCK, CLARKSON, SIBBES, and ADAMS; edited by the Revs. R. Halley, J. M'Cosh, A. B. Grosart, etc., with GENERAL PREFACE by the late CANON MILLER: in all 35 vols. 8vo. cloth, red edges, £6. 6s Nichols, Edinburgh, 1861 etc.

PURITAN TRACTS (Early):—An Admonition to the Parliament, A Second Admonition to the Parliament, and Certaine Articles collected and taken (as it is thought) by the Byshops out of a litle boke entituled an Admonition to the Parliament | wyth an Answere to the same, THREE EXCEEDINGLY RARE PIECES written against Episcopacy, and SECRETLY PRINTED, 12mo. blue morocco extra, gilt leaves, £5. 5s [1572]

The first of these tracts is attributed to John Field and Thomas Wilcox, or Wilcocks, and was probably printed abroad, perhaps at Zurich; the second is attributed to the itinerant press of the Puritans, which executed work at Wandsworth and elsewhere. At the foot of the Articles, which is the rarest of all, occurs: "Imprinted we know where | and whan | Judge you the place and you can. J. T. J. S."

The first Admonition, of which there were two editions, was alone marked by the late Mr. Lilly £3. 13s 6d.

PURITANISM:—A DIALOGVE CONCERNING the STRIFE of our CHURCHE, * * * with a briefe declaration of some such monstrous abuse, as our Byshops haue not been ashamed to foster, 16mo. black letter (corner of few leaves stained, but GOOD COPY), new calf antique, SCARCE, £1. 1s R. Walde-grave, 1584

——— A PARTE OF A REGISTER, contayninge sundrie memorable matters, written by diuers godly and learned in our time, which stande for, and desire the reformation of our Church, in Discipline and Ceremonies, small 4to. FINE CLEAN COPY in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by the late F. BEDFORD, £8. 10s [Edinburgh, secretly printed by R. Waldegrave, circa 1593]

"A Prayer for the Faithfull" is the last item mentioned in the Table of Contents; but it is followed in this copy by a piece entitled "A briefe aunswere to the principall pointes in the Archbishops Articles. Also certayne reasons against subscription to the booke of common prayers, and the booke of articles, as followeth: Written about an. 1583," which occupies three leaves more.

A copy similar to the present was lately marked £12. 12s. What is meant by terming this A Part of a Register seems to be that it had been intended that the second portion, which is still preserved in MS. in the library at Red Cross Street, should follow. But it was probably found impracticable.

PURITANISM:—An Abridgment of that Booke which the MINISTERS of LINCOLN DIOCESS delivered to his Maiestie upon the first of December last, 4to. hf. mor. (fine clean copy), 10s Printed 1605

An apology for refusing to subscribe the Articles of Conformity. The tract has no printer's name, and was probably a private impression.

"The publication of 'Clarissa' (says SIR WALTER SCOTT) raised the fame of the author to the height. No work had appeared before, perhaps none has appeared since, containing so many direct appeals to the passions, stated, too, in a manner so irresistible. And high as his reputation stood in his own country, it was even more exalted in those of France and Germany, whose imaginations are more easily excited, and their passions more easily moved by tales of fictitious distress, than are the cold-blooded English. Foreigners of distinction have been known to visit Hampstead, and to inquire for the Flask-walk, distinguished as a scene in Clarissa's history, just as travellers visit the rocks of Meillerie to view the localities of Rousseau's tale of passion. Diderot vied with Rousseau in heaping incense upon the shrine of the English author. The former compares him to Homer, and predicts for his memory the same honours which are rendered to the Father of epic poetry."

The present much esteemed edition is the first in which Richardson's works have appeared in a style worthy of his fame and in standard library form.

"The shape in which this work is presented is uniform with La Bruyère and Brillat-Savarin, th appearance of which has already been noticed. Pickering's edition of 1832 (for which see below), whic contains the additions of Ritson and of his editor and nephew, including the tale of Robin Hood and th Monk, the existence of which was ignored by Ritson, has been followed, and the woodcuts of Bewicl have been retained. These are now printed upon India paper, with a view of communicating greate softness. To these indispensable illustrations have been added nine etchings which now first see th light, from original paintings by A. H. Tourrier and E. Buckman. Some of these, which are also o India paper, are very spirited in design and rich in execution. A handsomer edition of Ritson's Robi Hood, or a more coveted possession to the bibliophile, is not to be expected."—Notes and Queries.

The above beautiful edition is the first collective impression of this early Scottish Classic, who has been described as a man of accurate observation and original thought—as one who displays a great knowledge of human nature, and who makes pointed observations on the manners and pursuits of mankind. He was also the author of the first metrical translation of a Greek or Latin Classical Writer in Britain. His body lies in the Chapel Royal, Savoy.

His poetical works consist of:—

I. The Palice of Honour. [An Allegorical Poem displaying great power of invention, and a ready command of striking imagery; and from which it has been supposed that Bunyan may have borrowed the idea of his "Pilgrim's Progress."]

II. King Hart. [An Allegory of the Progress of Human Life; in which the versification is superior to the "Palace of Honour."]

III. Conscience. [An Invective against the growing desire of Churchmen for wealth.]

IV. The XIII Bukes of Eneados of the famous Poete Virgill translated into Scottish Metir.

EPITAPHS and Monumental Inscriptions, chiefly in Scotland, Collection of, including the whole of Monteith's scarce "Theater of Mortality," with many Additions, frontispiece, post 8vo. calf antique, red edges, 12*s* 6*d* Glasgow, 1834

FINLAY (John) Scottish Historical and Romantic Ballads, chiefly ancient, 2 vols. post 8vo. mottled calf extra, gilt edges, very fine copy, by J. Clarke, £1. 15*s* Edinburgh, 1808

W. Mackenzie,* £2. 2*s* Brux., 1608

The object of this tetraglot version is not apparent, unless it was intended for educational purposes; but so far as the English is concerned, it is of so extraordinary a character, that it can have been barely intelligible even to Englishmen.

FRANCK (Richard) Northern Memoirs, calculated for the Meridian of Scotland: with the Contemplative and Practical Angler; writ in 1658; reprint of the rare original edition, with Notes by Sir Walter Scott, 8vo. half brown morocco extra, top edges gilt (only 250 copies printed), £1. 5*s* Edinburgh, 1821

Penrose, Bishop of Brechin) Kalendars of Scottish Saints, with Personal Notices of those of Alba, Laudonia, and Strathclyde; an Attempt to fix the Districts of their several Missions, and the Churches where they were chiefly held in Remembrance, with facsimile of two pages of the Drummond Missal; 4to. half morocco, £2. 10*s* Edinburgh, 1872

——— The same, on Large Paper, printed on Whatman's Paper, thick royal 4to. half morocco, uncut, top edges gilt, £4. 14*s* 6*d*

Many of these Kalendars are now published for the first time, and others, though printed, exist in such inaccessible forms as to make their exhibition very desirable. An account of the Scottish Saints, embodying the results of modern criticism, as well as indicating the original sources of the knowledge concerning them, is still a desideratum in literature, which the present work is an effort to supply.

"Sir David Lyndsay has the distinction of being reckoned by general consent the most popular of the Early Scottish Poets, and all his writings had for their object an unmistakable attempt to expose and reform abuses whether in Church or State. He exhibits (without the least scruple in altering words to suit the rhyme) a great command of versification, a fine feeling for the beauties of external nature, and a fund of what may be called low genuine humour and keen satire; while for a vivid conception and delineation of individual character, even in his impersonations of abstract Virtues and Vices, he displays great dramatic power, and in this respect he far surpasses any one of the early Scottish Poets. * * * If we do not reckon him as one of the Protestant Reformers, it would be a greater mistake should we hesitate for one moment in asserting that his Satirical Writings had a powerful effect in preparing the minds of his countrymen, by the exposure of the manifold corruptions and errors of Popery, for the final triumph of the Reformation, accomplished mainly by the dauntless energy of our Great Reformer, John Knox."

MR. J. P. COLLIER'S RARE SUBSCRIPTION EDITION, IN QUARTO.

PLAYS and POEMS: the purest Text, and the briefest Notes: edited by J. PAYNE COLLIER (beautifully printed on toned paper by T. Richards), 8 vols. crown 4to. in the original parts, 1878; also MR. COLLIER'S ORIGINAL REPRINT of EDWARD III., and his prospectus of the same, 1874—the whole in the original wrappers, sewn, as published (VERY RARE), £22. 10*s* 1874-8

 Of this carefully edited edition no more than 58 copies were printed, and these for the Subscribers only. In consequence of the impression being so limited, copies can very seldom occur for sale. In fact, the present is believed to be the second that has yet come into the market.

In the Preface the Editor says: "I can safely assert that there is no play, and no passage in a play by Shakespeare, regarding which I have not read, and carefully weighed every argument that has been advanced. I have also gone through every known novel, in English, Italian, and French, that has formed the foundation of any of the dramas in the ensuing volumes: with the general as well as theatrical literature of the period I may add that I am acquainted. If, therefore, in any case a decision of mine may seem erroneous, I have arrived at it after a long study and deliberation, and with a sincere desire not to cavil, but to be right."

"I have inserted in my present edition three Plays which have never yet been included in any Collection of the Works of our great dramatist—Edward the Third, indubitably by Shakespeare; the Yorkshire Tragedy, to which he contributed, probably in the haste to prepare it for representation; and Mucedorus, to which it seems certain he added a scene on some revival of a popular old drama, most likely in existence before Shakespeare joined a theatrical company: this very scene may, possibly, have been his earliest contribution to the stage."

The title of this copy is also inlaid; but otherwise it is fine and clean. Dr. Bliss's copy, with the portrait also inlaid, sold in 1858 for £26, and another, with the portrait mounted, in 1855, for £23. The portrait is considered the chef-d'œuvre of Marshall's graver, and a copy of the book on small paper with it is marked £50. in the Bibl. Anglo-Poetica. It may be doubted whether the first was ever taken off on paper to match the large paper of the book. Copies without it even on large paper are of small value, and the inlaid title to the present copy might be readily replaced by another.

MICELLANEOUS PROVINCIAL THEATRES, 1762-1884.

The above Collection is said to be one of the most comprehensive in existence, and was formed by HENRY HERMAN, Esquire, late of the Princess's Theatre. To mention but a few specialities, it contains important appearances of Edmund Kean, J. B. Booth, Wallack, Miss O'Neill, Macready, and first productions of nearly all plays in London from 1799 to 1836. These, however, form but a small part of the whole collection, which is carefully assorted and (when not bound) is carefully stitched in pamphlet form, each containing many hundred bills.

The Collection cost its late owner £275, and is now offered at the very low price of £150.

This collection has been the subject of many flattering and eulogistic notices and reviews. From other points of view also comes high praise, and authorities agree that Howell's State Collection is to a student indispensable and beyond value.

This rare and interesting volume, which contains the foundation of the administrative system of the Venetian Republic throughout its Veronese territory, is so superficially described by Brunet, that it seemed worth while to note down here the full particulars from the copy before us. Brunet does not mention the sale of one. But it may be questionable whether we ought not, from the terms of the colophon, to infer an antecedent edition, as the art of printing could scarcely have been viewed or described in 1475 in such language as we find used there.

This book is considerably more than it purports to be; for it not merely deals with the subject of the growth and manufacture of the wine, but follows the perfected product in its subsequent adventures, and portrays with pen and pencil the scenes of gaiety and temporary oblivion resulting from quaffing a sufficient quantity of this quintessence of that which makes glad the heart of man. It is a work to undermine the principles of the president of the United Kingdom Alliance.

A Descriptive List of the Magnificent Series of

GRAND ORNITHOLOGICAL & OTHER WORKS

BY THE LATE

JOHN GOULD, F.R.S., F.Z.S., etc.,

PURCHASED FROM HIS EXECUTORS AND NOW PUBLISHED BY

HENRY SOTHERAN & CO.

⁂ THE ADVERTISERS beg to call the special attention of the public to the fact that very few copies of any of Mr. GOULD'S Works remain for sale, and that they cannot be reproduced.

They are all published in unison with each other, in Imperial Folio, with the Plates and Descriptions in the same style, so as to form in themselves a regular series.

With regard to the COLOURING of the Plates, some have supposed that it has been produced by a mechanical process such as Chromo-Lithography. So far from this being the case, every sky, with its varied tints, and every feather of each bird, has been COLOURED, under the most careful superintendence, BY HAND.

MR. GOULD'S GRAND ORNITHOLOGICAL AND OTHER WORKS.

Preliminary Criticisms, etc.

Upon the merits of Mr. Gould's Works it is unnecessary to enlarge, for it has long been acknowledged by Naturalists that they stand at the very head of their class, whether as regards the accuracy of their Drawing, or the beauty and correctness of their Colouring; to say nothing of the scientific and interesting character of the Descriptions.

Another great charm of Mr. Gould's productions—one which from their beginning brought them into high popularity, and one which will ever secure for them the favour of all classes, whether scientific or not—is the unequalled skill displayed in the Attitudes, Groupings, Movements, and Accessories of the Birds.

In these animated pictures we indeed look upon them "in their habits as they lived,"—seeing not one, but in most cases, both the male and female, in various attitudes, sometimes sitting, sometimes on the wing; as well as the Trees which form their homes, and the Plants, Flowers, and Insects upon which they feed. In the Work on Humming Birds, the number and variety of the Orchids introduced are additional attractions. The same important quality of Naturalness attaches to the figures of the Mammals.

"Mr. Gould has produced a series of magnificent works without a rival in the Cabinets of Science, and the Gem of every rich man's library, to which, unfortunately, works of such artistic beauty, from their great costliness, must necessarily be confined. . . . In taking a review of Mr. Gould's labours, we cannot fail to be impressed with the benefits conferred by them on Ornithological Science. These benefits are not merely confined to the introduction of New Species to our knowledge, nor yet to the elucidation of points involved in doubt, or the extrication of species or groups from a maze of confusion,—they also result from the plan of the works themselves, which constitute, as far as they go, a Complete Pictorial Museum of Ornithology, to which the student may refer at once, and without the trouble of searching for the description of one species in one publication, and of another in a second, and so on, before he is able to satisfy himself as to the novelty or the contrary of the European Bird, Toucan, Trogon, or the rest under examination." — Professor Macgillivray.

"The works of Mr. Gould constitute a new epoch in the history of Ornithology, from the boldness of the plan on which they were executed; the number of New Species added to science, and of doubtful species cleared away from previous obscurity; the unadorned fidelity of the Descriptions; the exquisite Accuracy of the Plates, in which the utmost adherence to nature is united with that felicitous effect which stamps the artist, and proves that GRACE AND TRUTHFULNESS MAY MEET TOGETHER. Again, Mr. Gould's works form in themselves an Ornithological Museum; pictorial we grant, but of such a character as to obviate the necessity of a collection of mounted specimens obtained at no trifling cost, and preserved, even where room can be afforded for them, not without the greatest trouble."—The Times.

"No work of greater beauty will be produced than that on which John Gould, returning in his later life to his first love, bestowed the fulness of his energy and the acme of his artistic talent. We allude to his 'Birds of Great Britain.' The care bestowed on the plates of this work was remarkable, the aim of the author being to produce a picture of the birds as they appeared in their Natural Haunts, and especial pains were bestowed on the Young, particularly those of the Wading-Birds and Natators. In this fine work most of the drawings were developed and placed on stone by Mr. W. HART, who also executed all the plates of the later works."—Nature, 1881.

RECENTLY COMPLETED, UNDER THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MR. BOWDLER SHARPE, OF THE BRITISH MUSEUM.

THE BIRDS of ASIA, comprising 530 plates, most beautifully coloured by hand after Nature in the most perfect manner attainable; with copious Descriptions, complete in 35 parts each £3 3s.
Bound in 7 vols. new half morocco extra, gilt edges £120
Or superbly bound in whole morocco, gilt edges £145

 With the Thirty-fifth Part are issued complete Titles to the volumes; or in Mr. SHARPE'S words, "The Work has been arranged according to the classifications adopted by Mr. GOULD throughout his lifetime; and in giving Title-pages and Indexes to the Species, I have added the exact dates of publication for the benefit of Ornithologists who wish to quote the work."—August, 1883.

The very few COMPLETE SETS it was possible to make up having been for some time disposed of, the work is now wholly out of print, and is rapidly becoming as scarce and valuable as Mr. Gould's other works.

It only remains to state (what is well known to nearly all those acquainted with the subject) that Mr. Gould's death in no way interrupted the completion of the work with the same care which he took during his lifetime, the Publishers having carried it on to its conclusion by the agency of his whole staff of assistants and colourers, under the invaluable superintendence of Mr. BOWDLER SHARPE, of the British Museum, who had been his friend and "right hand" during the later years of his life.

"To no portion of the globe (says the Author) does there attach so much interest as to that vast extent of the Old World which we designate Asia. That the Zoology, then, of such a country should have called forth the notice and study of able minds cannot be surprising; and yet it is remarkable that no one has attempted a work comprehending a general history of its ORNITHOLOGY. This hiatus the present publication is intended to fill up."

THE TROGONIDÆ, or FAMILY of TROGONS. Second Edition, containing nearly 50 coloured plates, with copious Descriptions:
New half morocco extra, gilt edges £12 12s.
New whole morocco extra, gilt edges £14 14s.

The present new edition comprises all the New Species, and information acquired respecting this family of Birds during the last twenty-five years.

"The Trogons may dispute the palm of beauty with the Humming Birds. Their plumage in certain parts shines with metallic brilliancy, and exhibits all the colours of the rainbow."—Griffith's Edition of Cuvier. They are also remarkable for THE IMMENSE LENGTH OF THEIR TAILS.

Mr. Gould's Works, continued—

THE TROCHILIDÆ, or HUMMING BIRDS, with the SUPPLEMENT, 419 Coloured Plates, with copious Descriptions, in 30 parts, as published each £3 3s.

In 6 Vols., new half morocco extra, gilt edges £94 10s.

In 6 Vols., new whole morocco extra, gilt edges £105

⁎ This work will also be delivered to Subscribers for the whole, in one or more Parts at a Time, to suit their convenience. Price £3 3s. each Part.

Undoubtedly the most universally attractive of all Mr. GOULD'S publications, who thus speaks of it:—"Having from an early period devoted himself to the study of these beautiful birds, and acquired a most valuable and extensive collection of a group peculiar to America and its adjacent islands, the Author determined upon publishing a Monograph of a family unequalled for the gorgeous and ever-changing brilliancy of their hues, the variety of their form, the singularity of their habits, and the extent of their territorial distribution."

In continuation of "The Birds of Australia," by the same Author:

THE BIRDS OF NEW GUINEA, and adjacent Papuan Islands, with Descriptions, complete in 25 parts, containing 320 coloured plates, each £3 3s.

Bound in 5 vols. New half morocco extra, gilt edges £75

Superbly bound in whole morocco extra, gilt edges £85

"It is admitted (says Mr. GOULD) that New Guinea, or Papua, and the Papuan Islands [the former is separated only by Torres Strait from Queensland], have the FINEST BIRDS IN CREATION—THE PARADISEIDÆ, which have many different decorations, and must be seen in the Drawings to understand their forms: also THE FINEST PARROTS, KINGFISHERS, and PITTAS."

⁎ The death of Mr. GOULD in no way interfered with the completion of this fine Work, nor has the execution been in any respect inferior to his own portion of it. At his death he left a large number of Drawings for the continuation of all his Works, and he explained his wishes regarding them to his friend, Mr. BOWDLER SHARPE, of the British Museum (the Author, with Mr. DRESSER, of the "Birds of Europe"), and this eminent Ornithologist undertook to continue all the Publications left unfinished at the time of Mr. GOULD'S decease, including the Letterpress to the present Work.

The Publishers also retained the services of Mr. GOULD'S WHOLE STAFF of ARTISTS and COLOURERS; and Mr. HART, who has for so many years been entrusted with the execution of the Plates, has superintended the whole of the Illustrations.

THE ODONTOPHORINÆ, or PARTRIDGES of AMERICA, comprising 32 coloured plates, with copious Descriptions, new half morocco extra, gilt edges £10 10s.

Elegantly bound in whole morocco extra, gilt edges £12 12s.

"This (says Mr. GOULD), the result of twenty years' investigation of the subject, is perhaps the most perfect as well as the most important of the Author's Ornithological Monographs."

THE RAMPHASTIDÆ, or FAMILY of TOUCANS, second and enlarged edition, with all the plates redrawn: containing 52 coloured plates, with copious Descriptions, new half morocco extra, gilt edges £12 12s.

New whole morocco extra, gilt edges £14 14s.

The TOUCANS constitute a group of Birds confined to the tropical portions of AMERICA. They are distinguished by the richness and strong contrasts of the Colouring of their Plumage, and particularly by the ENORMOUS SIZE OF THEIR BILLS.

Mr. Gould's Works, continued—

THE MAMMALS of AUSTRALIA, 3 vols., containing 130 coloured plates, with Descriptions, new half morocco extra, gilt edges £42

New whole morocco extra, gilt edges £48

The Author's visit to Australia had enabled him to procure so much valuable information respecting the habits and economy, and many new species, of the singular and interesting MAMMALIA of that country, that he determined upon publishing a work on the subject.

"With respect to the importance of such a publication," says he, "no doubts can exist; and as I am deeply impressed with this idea, so shall I endeavour to render it equal to its associate work on the Ornithology of that remarkable region. To the Plates every attention, even to the minutest detail, has been rendered; and my original Notes and Observations have furnished me with a store to draw upon for many points of interest. In execution it is precisely similar to the 'Birds'; and it has been so highly approved of, that by many it is regarded as more interesting than the 'Birds' of the same country."

"In this work, the Animals themselves are not only figured, but Portraits of them from life are delineated, of which we cannot but notice one of Landseerian vigour—the physiognomy of the Tasmanian Wolf. In the publication of such a work Mr. Gould confesses that he has departed from his original purpose of confining himself solely to Ornithology, and owns that, with such a profusion of materials at his command, he was tempted to overstep his self-assigned limits. The scientific world ought to be thankful to him for having yielded to a temptation which, contrary to the normal rule, is productive of good."—The Times.

HANDBOOK to the BIRDS OF AUSTRALIA, 2 vols. royal 8vo. cloth (a necessary adjunct to the folio Work on this subject), £2 10s.

The Author says that since the publication of his "folio work on the Birds of Australia, many new species have been discovered, and much additional information acquired respecting those comprised therein; it therefore appeared to me that a careful résumé of the entire subject in an octavo form, without plates, would be useful to the possessor of the folio edition, as well as to the many persons in Australia who are now turning their attention to the Ornithology of the country in which they are resident."

"The two volumes (he also says) contain a considerable amount of interesting information, and descriptions of many species not in the folio edition."

SYNOPSIS of the BIRDS of AUSTRALIA and ADJACENT ISLANDS, with 72 coloured plates, in 1 vol. royal 8vo. new half morocco, £5

THIS WORK (even more than the "HANDBOOK") SHOULD BE IN THE HANDS OF EVERY AUSTRALIAN COLONIST who cares for the Natural History of his country, as the Descriptions and Illustrations enable him to identify with ease the various Birds he may come across in his out-of-door life.

"The object of the present publication (says the Author), is in the first instance to make known and record in an eligible form the vast accessions which Science has latterly acquired from this portion of the globe; and in order to render it of real value and utility to the men of Science of all countries, he has given, besides a Latin and English description, measurement, synonyms, etc., A FIGURE OF THE HEAD OF THE NATURAL SIZE OF EVERY SPECIES, a feature not to be found in preceding works of a similar nature, and by which each may at once be distinguished, hitherto a matter of some difficulty, particularly in those that are nearly allied."

INTRODUCTION to the BIRDS of AUSTRALIA, 8vo. cloth (SCARCE), 1848 £1 1s.

INTRODUCTION to the MAMMALS of AUSTRALIA, 8vo. cloth (SCARCE), 1863 £1 1s.

INTRODUCTION to the TROCHILIDÆ, or Family of Humming Birds, 8vo. cloth (SCARCE), 1861 £1 1s.

Only a very limited number of the above four useful works were printed for private distribution among the author's scientific friends, and very few copies are now left.

Mr. Gould's Works, continued—

PITTIDÆ, or SHORT-TAILED THRUSHES, with coloured plates, Part 1 (all pub.) £3 3s.

"The Times" on the Annual Register.

The following notice of the volume for 1886 will be found worthy of being printed at length:—

"THE 'ANNUAL REGISTER' FOR 1886.—This volume does not fall behind its 127 predecessors. Events have crowded upon one another so rapidly since the beginning of last year, and the complexion of public affairs in this country has altered so much, that it is interesting and instructive to read the events of what may be called the year of three Cabinets. It is true that Lord Salisbury was Prime Minister at the beginning of last year, as he is now; but the changes in the state of parties that have occurred since then are unparalleled in the experience of the present generation. A weak Ministry surrendered at the first attack made upon a mere outpost, an attack led by Mr. Jesse Collings and supported by Mr. Chamberlain. How Mr. Gladstone succeeded to power for a few months and, on being defeated on the Irish question, appealed to the country and was defeated by a crushing majority, and how the Liberal Ministry was rejected and the party shattered, these things are told in the present volume in an easy and continuous narrative at considerable length and with praiseworthy impartiality; and the details are, almost without exception, trustworthy. The volume is divided, as is customary, into two parts. The one deals with English as well as with foreign and colonial history. Nearly half of the book is devoted to English history. In the 194 pages which relate to foreign and colonial matters, sufficient importance is given to the relations of Turkey with the minor States of Eastern Europe, and to the other matter which chiefly concerned England, the negotiations relative to Central Asia and Afghanistan. Part II. contains a chronicle of events, a retrospect of literature, science, and art, and an obituary of eminent persons. The book would not be complete without a full index, and this the publishers, Messrs. Rivington, have supplied. As a clear and impartial record of the events of the year, easy for reference, and well proportioned in dealing with events of greater or less importance, the 'Annual Register' is at the head of all publications issued year by year, and is in fact unique."

This magnificent work, at length brought to a successful completion, is undoubtedly the finest of its class that has ever been published : it approaches finality in its thoroughness and exhaustive character as a work of research, and the exquisite nature of its chromolithographic illustrations (such as the finest art of Paris only could produce) makes it worthy to be possessed wholly on account of their beauty as works of art.

"One of the most valuable and interesting works of modern times. The portraits are painted by a veritable Highlandman—an artist of the true stamp, who is familiar with his subject."

COMPLETE CYCLOPÆDIA OF COSTUME, VERY MODERATE IN PRICE:

COSTUMES OF ALL NATIONS, Ancient and Modern, exhibiting the Dresses and Habits of all Classes, Regal, Ecclesiastical, Noble, Military, and Civil, both Male and Female, from the earliest historical Records to the Nineteenth Century, by Messrs. This comprehensive and authoritative Work is, in addition to the Costumes, made more interesting by its exhibiting numerous necessaries and adornments, e.g.:—

Regal Insignia: Crowns, Sceptres, Orbs, Thrones, etc.; Arms and Armour of every description; Personal Ornaments: Rings, Necklaces, Bracelets and Bangles, Earrings, Sandals, etc.; Domestic Articles: Cabinets, Commodes, Coffers, Reading Desks, Beds, Sofas, Tables, Chairs, Seats, Mirrors, Clocks, Water-Vessels, Baskets, Inkstands, Fans, Torches, Lamps, Umbrellas, Incense-burners, Walking-Sticks, etc.; Musical Instruments of all kinds, and various other articles.

——— The same, morocco, gilt edges £3 10s.

A beautiful and charming book, the plates being drawn and coloured with rare precision and taste. All the Figures, which are full length, are taken from trustworthy authorities, and represent the varieties and changes of the Costume of different classes from the earliest times to the present.

ILLUSTRATIONS OF ENGLISH AND FOREIGN COSTUME, from the Fifteenth Century to the present day, 96 full-length portraits engraved by Pauquet Brothers, after the designs of Albert Dürer, Titian, Vecellio, Jost Amman, Holbein, Rubens, Vandyck, Hollar, Bourdon, St. Sauveur, Koning, Lecluse, Dupré, and the principal Artists of the present age, all delicately and accurately hand-coloured, royal 4to., handsomely half bound in morocco, gilt edges, 1875 £2 15s.

——— The same, morocco extra, gilt edges £3 10s.

This work is executed in the same style of excellence as the preceding, to which it forms a companion, and has an interest of its own, as displaying not only costumes, but the portraits of nearly 100 eminent personages as depicted by celebrated painters.

COSTUME IN EUROPE, General History of, from the beginning of the Christian Era to the Accession of George III., by J. R. PLANCHÉ, Somerset Herald, with woodcuts and beautifully coloured plates, 4to. cloth, extra gilt, VERY CHEAP, n.d. 12s. 6d.

The above is the volume of "History" in the well-known "Cyclopædia of Costume," and is the remainder of the edition of that work, the rest of which was unfortunately destroyed by a recent fire. As it contains not only the Text, but also the woodcuts and coloured plates (though the exact number is not guaranteed), it is certainly the CHEAPEST AND USEFULLEST GENERAL HISTORY OF COSTUME at present to be had.

CRANE (Walter): "THE FIRST OF MAY," A FAIRY MASQUE, illustrated by 57 designs, printed by the photo-gravure process, in exact facsimile of the original drawings by WALTER CRANE; PROOFS on INDIA PAPER, imperial folio size, in portfolio, 1881 (pub. £6 6s.) £3 3s.

——— The same, FIRST PROOFS on INDIA PAPER, atlas folio size, in portfolio (pub. £10 10*s.*) £5 5s.

 Copies in various sumptuous bindings, forming handsome presents, kept in stock.

By this process the engravings are hardly to be detected from the drawings themselves. No description would realise the variety of subjects, and the wide range of Mr. CRANE'S pencil, nor the felicity with which each of the characters, human and semi-human, is drawn and individualised. Men, women, boys, girls, fairies, demons, elves, imps, beasts, birds, and even insects, all figure before us—singing, dancing, flying, joyous or sad, in each scene of the masque. All is May and Fairyland.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"'The First of May' is a grand art-work, and bids fair to be the book not only of this but many another season. It is unique in character, unsurpassed and unsurpassable in beauty, and one of the most exquisite and choice that an artist-mind could conceive, or enlightened and liberal-minded publishers carry out. It will be a treasure—'a thing of beauty' that will be 'a joy for ever'—to those who are fortunate enough to secure copies. These should be at once applied for."—The Reliquary.

"'The First of May' is a work full of tender feeling, and perfect in composition. The artist's smaller figures, his children, are delightful. What could be prettier than the little group around the maypole, No. III., or the busy elves making 'the spring's green wave break o'er the fields'? And how successful, too, he is in his delineation of the half-animal, half-human creature which, though somewhat sparingly, he has introduced; two groups on Sheet XXXVIII are not unworthy of Wilhelm Von Kaulbach or of Grandville."—Academy.

John Tatham's Dramatic Works (pub. 10*s.* 6*d.*)	4s. 6d.

No Dramatic Collection can be considered complete without the above Authors, who, for the most part writers of Comedy, flourished after the extinction of the Commonwealth. As the Text, in previous editions, had been either imperfectly or corruptly dealt with, the several Plays are now presented in an unmutilated form. They are beautifully printed on fine paper, and range with the best editions of Ben Jonson, Shirley, and other early Dramatists.

D'URFEY (T.) WIT and MIRTH; or Pills to Purge Melancholy, a Collection of Humorous Songs set to Music, portrait, 6 vols. crown 4to., large paper (only 100 copies printed), boards, uncut (scarce) £3 15s.

D'Urfey's Tory Songs did much to strengthen the Royal cause, and his Protestant lays helped to bring Popery into disrepute. "I myself remember (says Addison in the 'Guardian') King Charles leaning on Tom D'Urfey's shoulder more than once, and humming a song over with him. It is certain that monarch was not a little supported by 'Joy to Great Cæsar,' which gave the Whigs such a blow as they were not able to recover that whole reign. My friend afterwards attacked Popery with the same success, having exposed Bellarmine and Porto-Carrero more than once, in short satirical compositions which have been in everybody's mouth."

ELLIS (Sir H.) ORIGINAL LETTERS, illustrative of English History, with Notes and Illustrations, Third Series, frontispieces, 4 vols. post 8vo. cloth, 1846 (pub. £1 4*s.*) 10s. 6d.

FENN (Sir J.) ORIGINAL LETTERS, written during the Reigns of Henry VI., Edward IV. and V., Richard III., and Henry VII., by various Persons of Rank and Consequence, portraits showing the costumes coloured and numerous facsimiles: vol. 5, 4to. boards (useful for completing sets), 1823 15s.

FIELDING (H.) MISCELLANIES and POEMS, edited, with Preface, by Dr. J. P. Browne, 8vo. half morocco, top edges gilt, 1872 (pub. 7*s.* 6*d.*) 4s. 6d.

None of the contents of this volume have yet been included in any edition of Fielding's Works.

This work presents a series of exact illustrations of some of the principal Game Birds and Water Fowl of North America, coloured to the life, and reproduced from the drawings of an artist-sportsman who has given them years of careful and patient study. The subjects chosen are those most interesting to sportsmen. The male and female of each variety are shown, and accuracy in colour, form, and size are combined with excellent effect. The letterpress is compiled, by permission, from the works of Audubon, Wilson, Baird, Coues, and other well-known authorities.

GAME FISHES OF THE UNITED STATES; the Text by Professor G. BROWN GOODE, the 20 FINE COLOURED PLATES (size 22 by 28 inches) by S. A. KILBOURNE, mounted on heavy cardboards, 1879. Price, in parts, £12 ; or, bound in half morocco extra £14

"GAME FISHES" is acknowledged to be the most sumptuous work ever offered to collectors of books on Angling, and its illustrations are in many respects finer than the finest natural history pictures ever published.

"The plates are exact reproductions—lithographs in water colours—of the paintings by the late S. A. KILBOURNE, of Morrisania, the studies for which were made from life by the brook and on the shore, with the inspiration of pure air and open sky. Colour and life action are shown with striking effect, while details of form and structure are preserved with scientific accuracy, each painting having been criticised by skilful Ichthyologists."

The text was prepared by Professor G. BROWN GOODE, Assistant Director of the United States National Museum, the head of the Fishery Department of the Tenth Census, who was also Commissioner in charge of the American Department of the Berlin Fishery Exhibition. It is in no sense a compilation, but is made largely of fresh material from the investigations of the author, and by permission from the archives of the Fish Commission. It includes biographies of nearly all the important fishes of North America, many others than those shown in the plates being discussed in the text.

GRANT-FRANCIS (Colonel G., F.R.S.) HISTORY OF COPPER SMELTING in the Swansea District of South Wales, from the time of Queen Elizabeth to the present day, illustrated, 8vo. half bronze roan, Malachite sides, 1881 10s. 6d.

——— The same on LARGE PAPER, crown 4to. roxburghe, with Malachite linings 15s.

"The 'South Wales Process' of Copper Smelting is now the dominant one of the whole world."—H. HUSSEY VIVIAN, F.G.S., M.P.

A new and improved edition of the Author's work, issued in 1867; enlarged by additional information, further Illustrations and Explanatory Notes. It includes a mass of evidences of the time of Queen Elizabeth (from the Public Record Office), from which he has given verbatim transcripts of details of the most interesting and valuable nature in a social and mercantile sense; with much that is extremely curious in reference to the manipulation of Mines, Furnaces, and the Chemistry in practice during her reign.

GRIFFIN (Sir Lepel, K.C.S.I.; Agent to the Governor-General for Central India) The FAMOUS MONUMENTS of CENTRAL INDIA; A SERIES OF EIGHTY-NINE PHOTOGRAPHS IN PERMANENT AUTOTYPE, of the finest Temples, Palaces, etc., at Sanchi, Gwalior, Khajaraho, and elsewhere, with descriptive Letterpress, oblong folio, cloth extra, 1886 £5 5s.

——— The same, new morocco super-extra, elegantly tooled and gilt, gilt edges £8

In the course of a long and eulogistic review the Times says of this book:—

"If there was any doubt as to the Monuments of Central India being famous, it would be removed by the appearance of this magnificent volume . . . . As India is never likely to become a ground much frequented by tourists, Sir Lepel Griffin's collection will bring these remarkable Monuments before a far larger audience, and show people who can never hope to visit the spot, their architectural and sculptural beauties . . . . This superb volume reflects the highest credit on the printer and binder, as well as on the Autotype Company . . . . It rests with the Art-World of Europe and the Princes of Central India, who have a direct concern in the subject, to show that Sir Lepel Griffin's efforts are appreciated, and of this there can be little doubt, as a more beautiful volume in all its details has seldom been issued from an English Press."

HAKE (E., M.P. for New Windsor, temp. Q. Elizabeth) NEWES OUT OF POWLES CHURCHYARDE, written in English Satyrs; accurately reprinted in black letter by WHITTINGHAM, from the excessively rare Edition of 1579 in the possession of SIR CHARLES ISHAM, Bart., of Lamport Hall, Northants, edited, with an Introduction and Extracts from the Author's other Works, by CHARLES EDMONDS, 8vo. black letter, wrapping vellum. John Charlewood and Richard Jhones, 1579 [1872] 10s. 6d.

——— The same, PRINTED ON VELLUM, bound in white vellum, front edges turned in, wholly uncut £7 10s.

ONLY TWO COPIES OF THIS WORK ARE KNOWN. Its RARITY, however, is not its only recommendation, for it throws much light on the manners and customs of the time. It consists of a spirited dialogue (in eight Satyrs, as they are called) between Bertulph and Paul, as they walk in the aisle of St. Paul's Cathedral, then a favourite resort both for business and pleasure. The author inveighs with much severity on the abuses in all branches of society, attacking the rapacity and idleness of Church dignitaries, the corruption and partiality of judges, and the greediness of counsel and attorneys; the tricks and practices of physicians, apothecaries and surgeons; the unnecessary extravagance of living, and consequent ruin of thoughtless persons; the wickedness of bawds, usurers, brokers, etc.

ONLY FOUR COPIES WERE TAKEN ON VELLUM of this beautiful reprint (of which the present copy is No. 3), and only 131 copies in all of the whole edition, each copy being signed by the Editor.

HAMPSHIRE, GENERAL HISTORY OF, and the ISLE OF WIGHT, by B. B. WOODWARD, T. C. WILKS, and C. LOCKHART, with upwards of 70 full-page Engravings, Portraits, Maps, Views, Antiquities, etc., India Proofs ; 3 handsome vols. folio, large paper (only 50 copies so printed), new half russia extra, uncut, top edges gilt, 1861-9 (pub. £15 15s.) £10 10s.

——— Another copy, newly bound in full morocco extra, gilt edges £15 15s.

This exceedingly interesting and valuable County History was begun by the late B. B. Woodward, F.S.A., formerly librarian to Her Majesty the Queen at Windsor Castle, and after his decease was completed by the Rev. T. C. Wilks. The portion relating to the Isle of Wight was supplied by Mr. C. Lockhart.

The work contains in ample detail the History, Antiquities, and peculiarities of every Place of importance in the Shire, with numerous references to Family History, Anecdotes and Biographies of distinguished Natives and Residents, and accounts of Local Manners and Customs. It supplies what has long been wanted, a good and trustworthy History of this Shire, and is indispensable to every Topographical Library.

FIRST VOLUME (COMPLETE IN ITSELF) OF THE NEW EDITION OF

HASTED'S HISTORY OF KENT, corrected, enlarged, and continued to the present time from the MS. Collections of the late Revs. Thomas Streatfield and Lambert Blackwell Larking, the Public Records, and other sources, edited by Henry H. Drake, M.R.A.I.: Part I., the HUNDRED OF BLACKHEATH, comprising the Kentish Suburbs of London, with 30 pages of illustrations, folio, cloth, top edges gilt, 1886 £5

The present volume is the first-fruits of an enterprise first undertaken as far back as 1836, when the late Rev. T. Streatfield, of Chart's Edge, issued a circular announcing his intention of publishing a History of Kent, to the accumulation of materials for which he, for nearly half a century, devoted his life's energies. He secured the co-operation in his task of his friend the late Rev. Lambert B. Larking, Vicar of Ryarsh, himself a well-known collector of information connected with the County. The result of the untiring energy of the two friends in their joint investigations was the acquisition of a vast amount of information, which their deaths however (in 1848 and 1868 respectively) prevented their submitting to the public. Their collections fell into the hands of Mr. J. W. Larking, who determined to perpetuate his brother's and friend's memories by utilising them, and having found a competent Editor in Dr. Drake, the present work is now as a result published, as one complete in itself, but designed if it meets with success, to form a part of the History of the whole County. Copies will be supplied at the Subscription Price of £5 by H. Sotheran & Co.

"Dr. Latham's work is not only an English Dictionary in the strict meaning of the term, but in many important respects a very valuable addition to our national Lexicography. It deserves to be studied by every one interested in the language, and as a book of reference is admirably fitted for general usefulness."—Edinburgh Review.

"THIS TRULY GREAT PHILOLOGICAL WORK is now brought to a conclusion. To the VOCABULARY of the original work, which has always been considered defective, Dr. Latham has made so many Additions that his work may fairly be pronounced the MOST COMPREHENSIVE AND COMPLETE that has hitherto been attempted. He has very properly admitted PROVINCIAL WORDS having an undisputed ancient origin; those WORDS OF FOREIGN ORIGIN which have been incorporated bodily into the English language; purely COLLOQUIAL PHRASES, and MODERN SCIENTIFIC TERMS, and COMPOUNDS of recent date. Another important improvement upon the original has been made in the ETYMOLOGY, all conjectural derivations having been rejected."

"This is a work which no collector who can afford to buy it, or has courage to steal it, should be without. . . The distinctive feature of this splendid book is the large series of illustrations, which were drawn with the most exquisite skill and care. The greatest delicacy has been displayed in the reproduction of the forms and tints, the lustre, light, and shadow of the coloured examples. In short, these are crowning specimens of chromo-lithography: on the whole, they are very nearly the best of their kind."—Athenæum, July 17, 1880.

No Pictorico-Architectural work was ever so immediately successful on its publication as "Nash's Mansions"; and this resulted not only from the interesting specimens of the grand Domestic Architecture of England which were selected, but from their having been executed by a first-rate Draughtsman distinguished by very superior taste. The original edition having long become scarce and dear, the present edition has been published, without any sacrifice of the beautiful effects of the former one.

Useful for reference as containing many valuable papers by eminent authorities.

"The progress of shipbuilding in this country is recorded in a manner worthy of so great an industry. There is no more splendid volume of transactions than that which the Institution of Naval Architects issues yearly. Their twenty-seventh volume is extremely valuable, some of the papers indeed being of exceptional weight."—Saturday Review, October 16th, 1887.

POLYCHROMATIC DECORATION, as applied to Buildings, in the Mediæval Styles, by W. and G. Audsley, Fellows of the Royal Institute of British Architects, and Authors of several Works of Art, 36 folio plates, executed in the highest style of chromo-lithography, in colours and gold, with descriptive letterpress.

The Introductory Text contains a brief Historical Essay, and Practical Hints on the Process of Painting—Oil, Tempera, and Wax Painting—Preparing the Design, and Transferring the same to the Walls or other Portions of a Building, and the Principles of Decorative Design and Colouring.

This work has been produced with the aim of placing in the hands of Architectural Students, Decorative Artists, and Practical Painters, a volume which will serve as a rudimentary grammar of Gothic Polychromatic Decoration, suitable for use in the present day; and also with the view of furnishing a series of designs, based on Mediæval authorities, of great suggestive value to the student.

It is worthy of remark that, among the numerous works which have of late years been produced in this and other countries, not one has professed to be a systematic Treatise devoted to the Polychromatic Decoration of Ecclesiastical and Domestic Buildings in the Gothic styles. Books have been published containing fragmentary illustrations of Mediæval Ornamentation, and some have appeared in foreign countries, devoted to the monographical representation of the Polychromatic Decoration of modern or restored ancient buildings. Valuable as such works are, they scarcely can be called practical, nor do they meet the demands of the present time, in which a practical and suggestive guide is much wanted by all who have anything to do with this branch of decorative art. The great cost of the foreign Monographs unfortunately places them beyond the reach of many.

In the preparation of the Plates, great care has been taken to compile the different designs so that they shall meet the chief wants in every-day work; and the patterns are drawn and coloured so that they may offer the maximum amount of suggestive material to those who desire to prepare special designs for their own use. All the designs are described, and their most appropriate application pointed out.

IMPORTANT TO ARCHITECTS, PAINTERS, DECORATORS, AND MANUFACTURERS OF FURNITURE, PRINTED GOODS, JEWELLERY, ETC.:

POLYCHROMATIC ORNAMENT

100 PLATES IN GOLD, SILVER, AND COLOURS,

Comprising Two Thousand Specimens of the various styles of Ancient, Oriental, and Mediæval Art, including the Renascence and 17th and 18th Centuries,

By A. RACINET,

With explanatory Description to each plate, and a General History of the Art of Ornamentation, illustrated by Woodcuts.

Price, in one vol. folio, handsomely bound as below, 1877:—

Cloth extra, gilt edges	£6 6s.
New half morocco, gilt edges	£7 10s.
Whole morocco extra, gilt edges	£8 15s.

THE PLATES CONTAIN NO LESS THAN 2,000 DIFFERENT SUBJECTS, WHICH MAY BE MULTIPLIED ALMOST INDEFINITELY BY THE ALTERATIONS AND COMBINATIONS WHICH THE EXPERIENCE OF THE ARTIST OR MANUFACTURER WILL BE SURE TO SUGGEST; AND AS THE MAJORITY OF THEM EXIST ONLY IN UNIQUE SPECIMENS, THEY MAY BE REGARDED AS ABSOLUTELY NOVEL AND HITHERTO UNWORKED.

The general excellence of the volume, and its value as a book of instruction, are amply proved by the fact that it has been selected as a text book by the Science and Art Department at South Kensington.

M. RACINET'S NEW WORK,

NOW COMPLETE:

PRICE COMPLETE, EIGHT POUNDS NETT.

Although various works on the Art of Ornamentation have been published during the last few years, the advertisers have reason to believe that RACINET'S POLYCHROMATIC ORNAMENT has been found superior to them all in many important respects. The majority are either purely elementary, or confined to one particular branch of the subject, while the remainder are so costly that they are quite beyond the reach of the ordinary student. The present work is not only sold at a price which renders it available for all purposes of study and manufacture, but it is also so comprehensive that it forms in itself a complete library of the subject. The plates are executed with a degree of finish never before attained in a similar work, and in fact only recently rendered possible by the late improvements in the art of colour-printing.

The growing popularity of Orchids, the ever-increasing demand for information respecting them, and the indifferent serial works relating to this lovely and important class of plants hitherto published, are sufficient reasons for issuing this work. It will be the aim of the authors to represent truthfully the natural aspect of the plants, which will be drawn life-size, and in addition to the coloured illustrations, scientific drawings of the structural parts of the flowers will be given when desirable. Some of the plant-portraits will be coloured by lithography, others will be hand-painted, as may be found expedient. To the detailed information respecting each plant will be added practical notes on its culture. It is the intention of the authors to illustrate all classes of the Orchid family, and species and varieties of garden value, whether old or new, will find a place in the work.

"The publication of 'Clarissa' (says SIR WALTER SCOTT) raised the fame of the author to the height. No work had appeared before, perhaps none has appeared since, containing so many direct appeals to the passions, stated, too, in a manner so irresistible. And high as his reputation stood in his own country, it was even more exalted in those of France and Germany, whose imaginations are more easily excited, and their passions more easily moved by tales of fictitious distress, than are the cold-blooded English. Foreigners of distinction have been known to visit Hampstead, and to inquire for the Flask-walk, distinguished as a scene in Clarissa's history, just as travellers visit the rocks of Meillerie to view the localities of Rousseau's tale of passion. Diderot vied with Rousseau in heaping incense upon the shrine of the English author. The former compares him to Homer, and predicts for his memory the same honours which are rendered to the Father of epic poetry."

The present much esteemed edition is the first in which Richardson's works have appeared in a style worthy of his fame and in standard library form.

THACKERAY (W. M.) ETCHINGS (eleven) done while at Cambridge, illustrative of University Life, etc., NOW FIRST PUBLISHED, 8vo. boards, 1878 2s. 6d.

THIERS (L. A.) HISTORY OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION, 5 vols., and of the CONSULATE AND THE EMPIRE of France under Napoleon; translated from the French by F. SHOBERL (the only edition sanctioned by the Author), with fine steel portraits, 20 vols., THE WHOLE ILLUSTRATED WITH 75 ADDITIONAL STEEL ENGRAVINGS of PORTRAITS, BATTLE SCENES, SIEGES, etc., 25 vols. 8vo. in 15, new half calf gilt, 1845-1868 £12 12s.

——— The same, new calf gilt £14 14s.

Complete sets as above are getting daily more difficult to procure, and consequently are rising in value.

TORTOISES, TERRAPINS, and TURTLES, a Series of Sixty beautifully coloured Plates, drawn from Life by JAMES DE CARLE SOWERBY, F.L.S., and lithographed by EDWARD LEAR, with short Descriptive Notices, by Dr. J. E. GRAY, impl. 4to. half morocco, top edges gilt, 1872 (pub. £4 10*s.*) £2 2s.

This series of plates was made under the superintendence of Mr. THOMAS BELL, F.R.S., F.Z.S., etc., to illustrate his "Monograph of the Testudinata," a work which was never completed because of the publisher's failure. A series of 7 parts, containing in all 40 plates, was delivered to the subscribers, but on account of the manifest incompleteness of the work, the sale was small, and the book remained but little known.

The eminent naturalist, Dr. GRAY, of the British Museum, kindly edited the book in its present shape, and added a short description of each plate, with a reference in each case to a work in which the synonymy of the species is to be found. The figures are so minutely accurate and detailed, that lengthened descriptions are unnecessary; and the Publishers believe that all lovers of Natural History were glad to learn that Plates so beautiful had been rendered available for the purposes of Science.

NEW AND SPLENDID EDITION:

WINCKELMANN (Abbé J.) HISTORY OF ANCIENT ART, translated from the original German by G. HENRY LODGE, M.D., with the Notes of Meyer, Lessing, Amoretti, Fea, Desmarest, Siebelis, and Eschenburg, portrait and upwards of 70 plates, 4 vols. 4to. in half cloth cases, Boston, Mass., 1880 (pub. £5 5*s.*) £2 12s. 6d.

ONLY 100 COPIES of this finely executed edition have been printed, each of which is numbered.

Of the merits of the "History of Ancient Art" it is necessary at the present day to say but little; its value having been universally admitted. The author has been emphatically and truthfully described as "The greatest Connoisseur and Teacher of the Beautiful in plastic art. He had an inborn lofty sense of the beautiful, an eye trained by practice, a clear judgment, acuteness of intellect, a happy memory, and a love for his subject, which mounted quickly to rapture, faithfully accompanied him in all his investigations, and in the record of them."

TURNER'S LIBER STUDIORUM, Reproduced in Facsimile by the Autotype Process, edited, and each Plate accompanied by a Critical Notice, by the Rev. STOPFORD BROOKE, M.A.; the Plates Photographed from Examples of the best "States" in possession of the Editor; published in three volumes, each containing 24 illustrations; cloth, 1882 £12 12s.

These parts may be had separately, price £4 4*s*. each.

——— The same, bound in one fine volume oblong folio, new morocco super-extra, gilt edges £15

The above Autotypes give for the first time a worthy reproduction of the wonderful designs which were begun by Turner in rivalry with the Liber Veritatis of Claude. They were original studies, carefully conceived for the purpose of engraving—etched on the copper by himself, their engraving carried on day by day under his own eye, and sometimes done by his own hand.

On the importance to Artists of a profound study of these grand and thoughtful compositions Mr. Ruskin continually dilates in "Modern Painters." In Vol. V. he sums up the lessons and the meaning of the Liber Studiorum, and reiterates the angry exclamation of the great painter, "What is the use of them," he said, "but together?" The appreciation of the public is shown by the high prices given for the complete series—as much as from £700 to £1,000 having been obtained for them at recent sales. From this cause it has hitherto been impossible for people of moderate means to obtain the instruction and enjoyment which a study of the work must give, but which they may now, by the completion of the above AUTOTYPE FACSIMILE, obtain at a price which is within the reach of almost any admirer of Turner's great masterpiece.

NOTES ON THE LIBER STUDIORUM, by the Rev. STOPFORD BROOKE, M.A., being the Text (re-written and re-arranged) of the above AUTOTYPE REPRODUCTION, with a fine ETCHING by FRANK SHORT, and 5 Photo-Engravings by the Autotype Company, large crown 8vo. cloth, uncut, top edges gilt, 1885 10s.

Mr. Stopford Brooke is well known as one of the first authorities on Turner's Liber Studiorum, and the above work forms a companion to the original plates, and a commentary upon "the most enduring record of Turner's mind."

"In his little essay on the frontispiece all Mr. Brooke's qualities as a writer are seen at their best. Some of his descriptions of nature, especially of skies, as that of the 'Peat Bog,' are more impressive, and he occasionally reaches a higher note of poetry, as in his admirable description of the 'Rizpah;' but on the whole there is no piece of work in the book more free from flaw than this first essay. . . . . There is a great deal of poetry and ingenuity of knowledge, observation, and insight in these 'Notes on the Liber Studiorum.'"—Saturday Review, October 8th, 1887.
